

ARCMAKER WELDING
EQUIPMENT
GILMAN'S

THE WEATHER

Moderate to fresh Easterly winds. Cloud decreasing during the afternoon. Temperature at 1 pm 73 degrees Fahrenheit, relative humidity 61 per cent.

LATE FINAL

CHINA

MAIL

No. 37808

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1960.

Price 20 Cents

Only on Pan Am...

JETS
ON EVERY FLIGHT

From Hong Kong - Phone 37031

Comment Of The Day

GOOD ADVICE

LORD PERTH gave some particularly appropriate advice to the unofficial MLAs on Wednesday night when he told them that their job was to "keep Government on their toes—because that is what we want." As we see it, that was an invitation to them to come out of their shells, to be more forthright in their opinions, to be more direct in their pronouncements, and, above all, to make a point of speaking out in public.

In Hongkong there has existed ever since the Communists took over China a "Don't rock the boat" mentality which is carried to an absurd degree. This mentality dictates that Government shall never be rebuked publicly or if so in the mildest possible terms. In addition many of the unofficials seem to be under the impression that public criticism and forthright comment is incompatible with their position as community leaders, that they should be above that kind of thing.

Moreover they misunderstand their position. They are not, as they seem to think, working on a committee. Nor are they Government's confidential advisers. The unofficials are in the Legislative Council as the representatives of the people, and if the public is not able to see that their interests are properly protected, then the unofficials are not doing their job.

THERE are two schools of thought about the unofficials: one that they are "yes-men", the other believes they do much good work behind the scenes. We say they will not be effective until they carry out the public's business in public. People who are anxiously concerned about the current demands for constitutional reforms have to face the fact that frustration and impatience arising from the present system is largely the cause.

We cannot have a proper Parliament in Hongkong but that is no reason why there cannot be regular debates on current legislation or matters of public interest, and no reason why questions are not asked of our Legislative Council sessions. In short, there is no reason why our unofficials cannot act like the representatives of the people in any other Parliament, even though they are not elected. Unless they assert themselves and win popularity and respect, the rumble of discontent we hear today is going to grow louder.

Rahman's warning on West New Guinea

Washington, Oct. 27. Malayan Prime Minister Tengku Abdul Rahman warned today that Indonesia might invade Dutch-held West New Guinea, unless a peaceful settlement of the territory's future is reached soon.

Speaking to the National Press Club, he made a public bid for U.S. support of his secret compromise plan for peace between the Netherlands and Indonesia on the issue.

Yesterday he asked the U.S. Government for "moral support" of his mediation efforts, which he said provides for United Nations participation in a settlement.

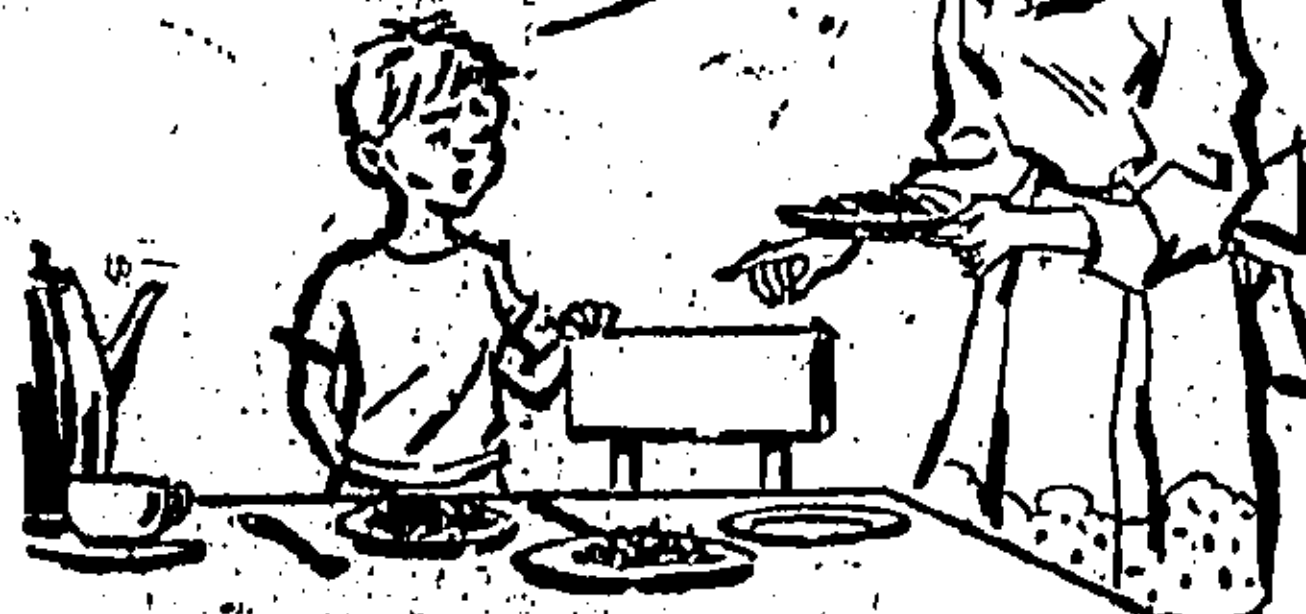

Speaking bluntly in answer to questions, Prince Abdul Rahman said, "Holland will never be able to defend that place... If trouble breaks out, it may not be confined there. And when trouble breaks out, the Communists are sure to take advantage of it."

In his prepared address he said that he had presented his ideas for a settlement of the issue to Indonesia and "I am glad to mention that after several attempts Indonesia has come some way to meet these suggestions of mine."—UPI.

—UPI.

SIT DOWN AND
HAVE YOUR DINNER!

BUT I'M NOT HUNGRY MUMMY

DO YOU HAVE THIS PROBLEM?
GIVE YOUR CHILD

PALADAC

THE TRUE ORANGE FLAVOURED
VITAMIN PRODUCT WHICH INCREASES YOUR CHILD'S APPETITE

MADE IN U.S.A.

Police get orders: 'Don't be soft to anyone' THOUSANDS RIOT IN FRANCE

Many hurt, arrested in clashes

Paris, Oct. 27.

Nearly 100 people were injured and hundreds more arrested in Paris and the big provincial cities of France tonight in the worst riots since General de Gaulle returned to power in June 1958.

Riots, demonstrations and strikes in Paris, Lyons, Lille, Dunkirk, and Marseilles marked the "action day" called by leftwingers in support of a negotiated peace to end the six-year-old war against nationalist insurgents in Algeria.

In Paris, police baton-charged huge crowds of leftwing and rightwing demonstrators outside a "Peace in Algeria" meeting in La Mutualite Bank Hall, and in Lyons 20 people were injured in clashes between similar groups.

Smoke bombs

In an official communiqué, Paris police headquarters said 485 people had been arrested and 38 police had been injured.

Semi-official reports tonight put the casualty list at 60 demonstrators.

Strong forces of police, with "Don't be soft to anyone" orders charged both leftwing and rightwing demonstrators outside a "Peace in Algeria" meeting in the huge La Mutualite Hall on the Left Bank.

During the meeting, called by the French National Union of Students, Teachers, Socialist and Christian Unions, three rightwing youths shouted "Algeria is French" and hurled crude smoke and teargas bombs into the audience. They were pounced on by angry leftwingers.

Outside, police were ordered to disperse a crowd estimated at between 15,000 to 20,000, which was chanting "Peace in Algeria," "negotiate" and "put the paratroops to work."

Shock force

A shock force of at least 3,000 police, many of them armed with three-foot long riot sticks, carved up the demonstrators into groups.

There were brief but bloody clashes between police and leftwing groups—including well-known politicians—and also between police and rightwing demonstrators shouting "Algeria Française."

In Lyons, about 4,500 demonstrators, chanting "Peace in Algeria" clashed with police, who blocked roads to prevent them reaching the city centre and threw tear gas grenades to break up the crowds.

There were also skirmishes between demonstrators in favour of negotiation and other groups chanting "Algerie Française."

About 20 demonstrators were treated for injury in hospital. A further 30 were arrested, about 80 per cent of workers in the main factories of the city staged work stoppages.

Tear gas

In Angers, eastern France, after a meeting calling for negotiations, several thousand people tried to form a procession. Police broke it up with tear gas bombs and baton charges. Several were injured, including one seriously.

In Rouen, Normandy, tear gas grenades were "fired" during a meeting and there were clashes between leftwing and rightwing groups.

Earlier today it was announced that General de Gaulle would address the nation in a televised speech on Friday, November 4—three days after the sixth anniversary of the Algerian struggle.

Sources close to the President said one main theme was likely to be a strong appeal for national unity—on which he has already insisted in recent tours of the French provinces.—Reuter.

'No change in Hongkong bank rate likely'

"There is not likely to be a change in Hongkong's bank rate," said Mr. G. O. W. Stewart, Deputy Chief Manager of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank this morning.

Mr. Stewart was asked whether the cut in London bank rate will affect the Hongkong rate.

The half per cent reduction in London rate is only "a small change," he said.

"The move might be aimed primarily to relieve pressure on the dollar by discouraging 'hot money,' a large amount of which has flooded the London market to profit the high interest rate."

(Since the London interest rate went up to six per cent on June 23, an incessant flow of foreign capital—up to US$500 million by September—has poured into the London market where US$300 million was used in "re-lending" and the remaining US$200 million invested in short-term sterling bonds).

Another reason could be that the hire-purchase business may benefit from the interest reduction, Mr. Stewart said.

A Chinese banker in Hongkong said he believed the cut in London bank rate was to help the British motor and electric appliances industries.

now in a temporary recession.

But Mr. Stewart was inclined to think that the reduction of half a per cent was too small to help these industries very much.

Nevertheless he agreed the pound is now in a very strong position, "with reserves of gold and exchange up to £1,110 million. The rumour of a reduction in the London bank rate has been in the air for quite some time in the Colony."

Local banking circles predicted yesterday, on hearing the change in London rate, that there will be little change in local rates "because they have been low enough on the local market."

FLOOD CHAOS IN ENGLAND

London, Oct. 27.

Amphibian-borne troops and marines moved in to the rescue tonight as flood waters rose menacingly over large areas of western and southern England.

Torrential rains over the last 48 hours have sent rivers overflowing, into the streets of towns and marooned house-holders.

Flood waters and landslides made roads impassable, cut railway lines and brought telephone lines down.

HAVOC

The Royal Automobile Club reported flooding caused "havoc and chaos" in the West Country.

Police said the situation in Exeter was "very serious" after the River Exe overflowed and flooded half the city to a depth of five feet. Amphibious vehicles were called in to aid rescue work. Wartime assault craft and amphibious vehicles were also headed for Taunton where police said the situation was "slightly improved" after a day of continuous rain.—APF.

Reshuffle of Tories

London, Oct. 27.

An announcement is expected soon of a reshuffle in the junior ranks of Mr. Harold Macmillan's Conservative Government.

The Government has to replace Mr. Robert A. Allan, who recently resigned his post of Joint Parliamentary Under-Secretary at the Foreign Office on being appointed a treasurer of the Conservative Party organisation.

Another vacancy is the office of the Government Whip (party manager) in the House of Lords.—Reuter.

FBI AGENTS SWOOP ON ALLEGED SPIES

Map, aerial photographs seized

New York, Oct. 27.

U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation agents tonight swooped down on a Russian employed at United Nations Headquarters and a New York illustrator and arrested them on charges of espionage.

The Justice Department announced the arrests from Washington minutes after agents seized the two men at their homes in New York. U.S. Attorney General William

P. Rogers named the men as Igor Yakovlevich Melekh, the Russian, and Willie Hirsch, described as a free-lance medical illustrator in New York.

Mr. Rogers said that Melekh had sought to obtain U.S. intelligence data in New York City, Newark, New Jersey, and Chicago.

"This data included a map of Chicago showing military installations and aerial photographs of the city," Mr. Rogers said.—APF.

'INTIMATE DETAIL WAS ENTIRELY NECESSARY'

Anglican Bishop defends 'Lady Chatterley's Lover'

London, Oct. 27.

A Church of England Bishop went into the witness box here today to defend "Lady Chatterley's Lover" against a charge of obscenity.

PENGUIN BOOKS

LADY
CHATTERLEY'S
LOVER

D. H.
LAWRENCE

ROBERT GRIFFITHS

Illustrated by 3/6

Penguin's cover of the book on trial.

The Bishop of Woolwich told a jury that in his view the author, D. H. Lawrence, had "tried to portray the sex relation as something sacred."

The Bishop, who has a son and three daughters, contended that Lawrence could not have left out his descriptions of sexual relations between the well-bred Lady Chatterley and the gamekeeper of her husband.

The bishop added: "I think Lawrence tried to portray this relation as in a real sense of Holy Communion. For him flesh was sacramental of the spirit."

Redeem

Penguin Books Limited, publishers of high-class paperback books, are charged at the Old Bailey Central Criminal Court under the obscenity laws for publishing a new edition of "Lady Chatterley's Lover."

The firm sought the case in an effort to have the 32-year-old ban on it lifted.

First defence witness was Mr. Graham Hough, a Cambridge University lecturer and literary critic, who told the court why Lawrence used "four-letter words" and intimate details in describing Lady Chatterley's love affair.

Mr. Hough said that in Lawrence's view there was no proper language to talk about sexual matters. They were either discussed in clinical terms—or with words usually thought to be coarse or obscene.

"He wishes to find the language in which sex can be discussed plainly and not irreverently, and to do this he tries to redeem the normally obscene words and use them in a context that is entirely serious," Mr. Hough said.

Mr. Gerald Gardiner, defence counsel, asked how far the descriptions of sexual intercourse were necessary to the theme of the book.

Mr. Hough replied: "Entirely necessary. Lawrence is trying to set sexual situations more openly and more clearly than is usually done in fiction, and to do this he must describe that which he purports to represent."

The case was continuing.—Reuter.

Rumour quashed

Washington, Oct. 27.

The State Department today after contacting the U.S. Embassy in Addis Ababa, denied rumours circulating there that Emperor Haile Selassie had died.

Origin of the rumours was not immediately known.—APF.

Timepiece for the man with a future!

THE WORLD'S FIRST

Electric WATCH
HAMILTON

EVEREST
HK $400

Now entering its fourth year, Hamilton's Electric Watch has been accepted all over the world.

Forward-looking men have found this revolutionary new concept of timekeeping more accurate, more carefree than any other. We invite you to see our newest styles.

SOLE AGENT: GARY COMPANY LIMITED
801, TRADING HOUSE, H.K.

AVAILABLE AT ALL
LEADING WATCH & JEWELLERY
STORES

SOLE AGENT: GARY COMPANY LIMITED
801, TRADING HOUSE, H.K.

SOLE AGENT: GARY COMPANY LIMITED
801, TRADING HOUSE, H.K.

SOLE AGENT: GARY COMPANY LIMITED
801, TRADING HOUSE, H.K.

Nine prominent Scots lodge protest 'NO POLARIS BASES ON THE CLYDE' DEMAND

Glasgow, Oct. 27.
Nine prominent Scots have written to Glasgow City Corporation protesting at the United States' proposal to establish a base for Polaris missile equipped submarines in Scotland.

7 killed as Nepal police clash with demonstrators

Katmandu, Oct. 27.
Seven people were killed and 17 injured earlier this week when Nepalese police fired at demonstrators armed with swords at Gorkha, the Nepalese government announced today.

The announcement said 11 policemen were injured during the incident which occurred last Tuesday.

Some days ago police arrested five ring-leaders of a militant politico-religious organisation known as the Karmvir, whose leader Yogi Naraharinath was still at large.

REINFORCEMENTS

Yogi Naraharinath, who claimed to be "god himself" and a "king's man", reportedly was behind a move to overthrow the Nepalese government by violence.

The government announcement said police reinforcements had been rushed to the area, and that the situation was under control.—AP.

Heavy gunfire in Havana

Havana, Oct. 27.
Heavy gunfire was heard for an hour early today in the Billmore area of Havana reportedly from shots by police and military guards against a low-flying plane.

Many residents of the area, which includes the U.S. Embassy and diplomatic establishments of other nations, were awakened.

Meantime, police patrol cars were busy hailing and searching cars in a hunt for illegal arms.—AP.

Headless body FOUND AFTER DISAPPEARANCE OF 15 YEARS

London, Oct. 27.
A man's headless body was found last night in an underwater bank on an old gasworks site in East London—15 years after his disappearance.

Police trying to untangle the riddle have identified the corpse as that of Thomas Chapman, who on March 31, 1945, left his home in East London to do a day's work at the Whiston Road Gasworks, Shoreditch. He was wearing his best clothes—he later intended to travel to Luton, Central England, with his wife, Chapman, then 55, vanished. Soon after his disappearance, the gasworks was closed.

Yesterday, a body was found in an underground tank on the gasworks which had been lying under four feet of rubble for nearly 15 years.

Early today, police said they had not ruled out the possibility of foul play.—China Mail Special.

A British Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

- 1 Does it worry you to do it? (8).
- 8 Aerobically (4).
- 9 Running cold? (8).
- 11 Yul Brynner, for instance? (8).
- 13 Edible refuse (4).
- 15 Mould for a shoe (8).
- 18 Not legally encumbered (8).
- 19 Is full at the end of a sentence (4).
- 21 Half-naked, literally (8).
- 23 How some roads are surfaced (8).
- 26 Go in gracefully? (4).
- 27 Endeavour to succeed (8).

DOWN

- 1 Strike me pink? No, black (4).
- 2 Call for ring (4).
- 4 Tell off about the speed? (4).
- 5 Drew into a knot? (4).
- 6 Or French sea shell (8).
- 7 The Mohammedan Bible (8).
- 9 Old maid's resting place? (8).
- 10 Elevate to a higher plane (8).
- 12 Concerning a fight, it seems (8).
- 14 Went down with a complaint (8).
- 16 Spirit liberated by Prospero (8).
- 17 Not piping hot (8).
- 18 Oil reservoir (8).
- 20 It's just on target (8).
- 21 No fast-mover (4).
- 22 It's ground for food (4).
- 23 One in a million, maybe (4).
- 24 Famous "gardener" (4).

YESTERDAY'S CROSSWORD: Across: 1 Hand, 4 Bob, 7 Land, 8 Lard, 9 Canteen, 10 Assets, 13 Bad time, 15 Cruise, 18 Lard, 19 Hairless, 20 Dosed, 21 Not-way, 23 Down, 1 Relic, 2 Cadet, 3 Diagram, 4 Spella, 5 Band-Aid, 6 Recess, 10 Nodulous, 12 Section, 13 Bullied, 14 Inched, 16 Oiler, 17 Sassy.

DEMOCRACY ON THE DANCE FLOOR

Leaders of Britain's Labour Party had not a worry in the world the other night.

All the troubles were submerged in a merry-go-round of 'Let's forget it all and have some fun' at a London Labour Party dance just off the Strand.

No worries on such matters as unilateral disarmament, the predominance of Party resolutions, or the relations between the Party and the TUC.

Party leader Hugh Gaitskell finally emerged breathless and somewhat dishevelled to observe: "What a wonderful night!"

A little later he discovered that there had been some slight irritation after all. It had nothing to do with party friction. His car had been towed away by the police after having been parked for three hours.

But the police officers were very apologetic and the Labour Party leader went down in a friend's car to collect his own vehicle.

A gift for Margaret

London, Oct. 27.
A silver-mounted saddle straight out of a Western movie was handed to Princess Margaret tonight by one of Hollywood's top Western stars.

John Wayne presented the saddle to the Princess at London's Astoria Theatre—and the gift started her.

"Good gracious," she said, "thank you very much, what a wonderful present."

Wayne was the host at the European premiere of his movie "The Alamo." Princess Margaret attended with her husband, Antony Armstrong-Jones.—AP.

Cost of K's visit

Paris, Oct. 27.
The cost to the French Foreign Ministry of the visit to France in May this year by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was just over 156 million old francs ($312,000).

This figure was revealed in the National Assembly finance commission today.—AP.

SON TAKEN OUT OF SCHOOL Mother says 'no' to Bible-reading in class

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 27.
Mrs Madalyn Murray has withdrawn her 14-year-old son from school in protest against Bible reading in class.

Mrs Murray, an atheist, said today the boy will not return if he is required to stay in the room when the Bible is read.

She said she was prepared to fight the case to the U.S. Supreme Court and would go on a hunger strike in jail to defend her position, if necessary.

SCHOOL RULE

"I'm determined my son is not going to bow down to any concept of what an average American is given to be," she said.

At issue is a 60-year-old school board rule which says the Bible or Lord's Prayer, or both, shall be read in opening exercises.

Mrs Murray claims the rule violates the U.S. constitution and the principle of separation of church and state.

Her son, William J. Murray III, also considers himself an atheist. He said he is studying his lessons at home with his mother's help.

State law requires school attendance by children between seven and 16. Mrs Murray said she does not intend to meet the requirement by placing William in a private school.

Dr George B. Brain, the city school superintendent, said he is conferring with the state Department of Education about what action should be taken. Mrs Murray is divorced from William's father.—AP.

Bank of England in gold market

U.S. Treasury has 'no criticism' of British policy

Washington, Oct. 27.
The U.S. Treasury today made it clear it would have no objection if the Bank of England bought gold from the United States and resold it in the London market.

The Department distributed a four-paragraph statement which it said was issued "in answer to inquiries," clarifying its attitude toward possible intervention in the market by the Bank of England.

"Any buying and selling by the Bank of England in the London market is, of course, the responsibility of the British authorities," the Treasury said.

Noting that the British authorities have gone into the market in the past as both buyer and seller "in accordance with their best judgment," the Department said:

"The U.S. Treasury has no criticism of such policy."

Last Thursday, when wild speculation erupted in the London gold market the Treasury issued a statement saying it would continue to sell gold at $35 an ounce to settle international accounts "or for other legitimate monetary purposes." —AP.

Strikers return to work

London, Oct. 27.

More than 1,500 men who have been on unofficial strike in the Port of London in protest against the searching of dockers' homes by police, agreed tonight to return to work tomorrow.

The strike started on Monday when 400 men handling meat, fruit and other food walked out because they claimed that police searched the homes of three dockers in connection with inquiries over the theft of canned goods.

The men agreed to return to work after officials of the Transport and General Workers Union met the employers, and told a mass meeting of the strikers later that police inquiries could not be limited in any way.—Reuter.

Jordanian seeks asylum

Damascus, Oct. 27.
A Jordanian officer carrying important documents has asked Syrian authorities for asylum, the Damascus newspaper, Al Alam reported today.

The newspaper also said well-informed persons coming from Jordan had reported that 25 British officers had recently arrived in Amman to serve in the Jordanian army, and that another group of British officers would soon arrive in Jordan.

Jordan's King Hussein had requested the British officers during his last visit to London, the paper said.—AP.

Thornycroft in Paris

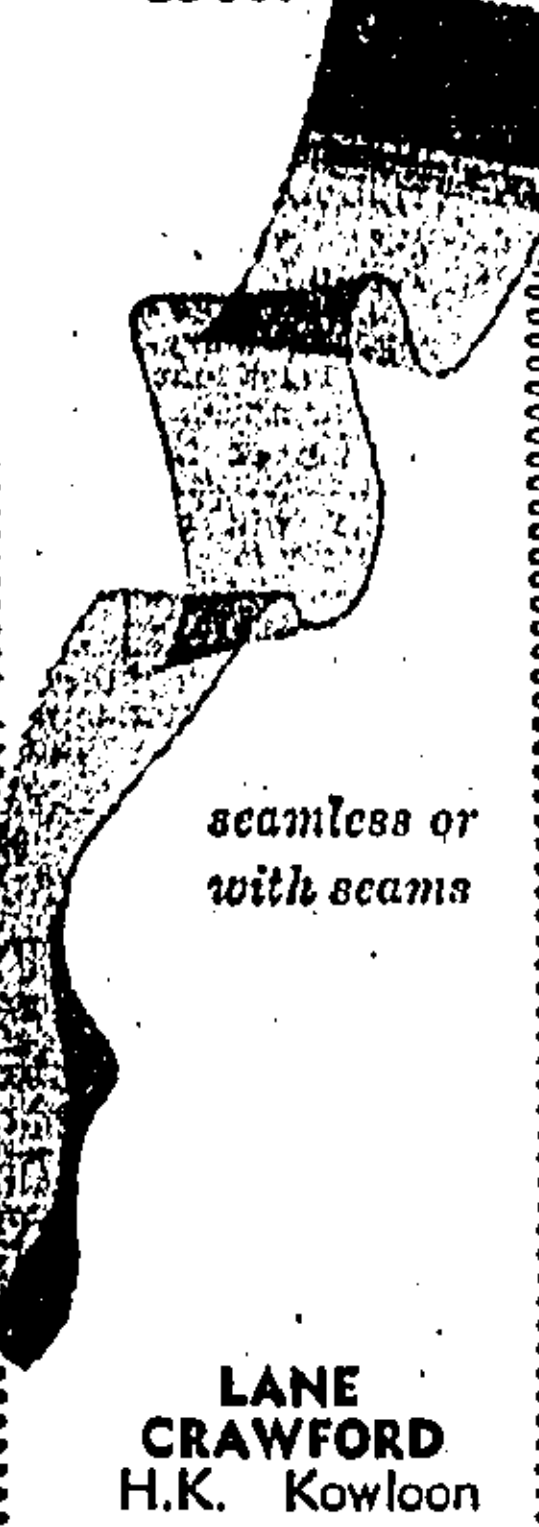

Paris, Oct. 27.
British Minister of Aviation Peter Thornycroft arrived here today and had talks with French Minister of State Mr Pierre Guillaumat.

He was tonight guest at a dinner given by Mr Pierre Messmer, French Minister of the Army.

Mr Thornycroft will again meet with Mr Guillaumat tomorrow.—AP.

BERKSHIRE STOCKINGS

will not run from top or toe into the sheer leg area—or you get a new pair free!

EXACT FIGURES EVERY DAY

There's no need to wait until the end of the month to find out whether or not your business is making a profit. The Burroughs "600" Director Accounting Machine gives you the exact figures at the end of each day... or whenever you want them! And remember, this machine can be operated manually as well as electrically. Ask for the details...

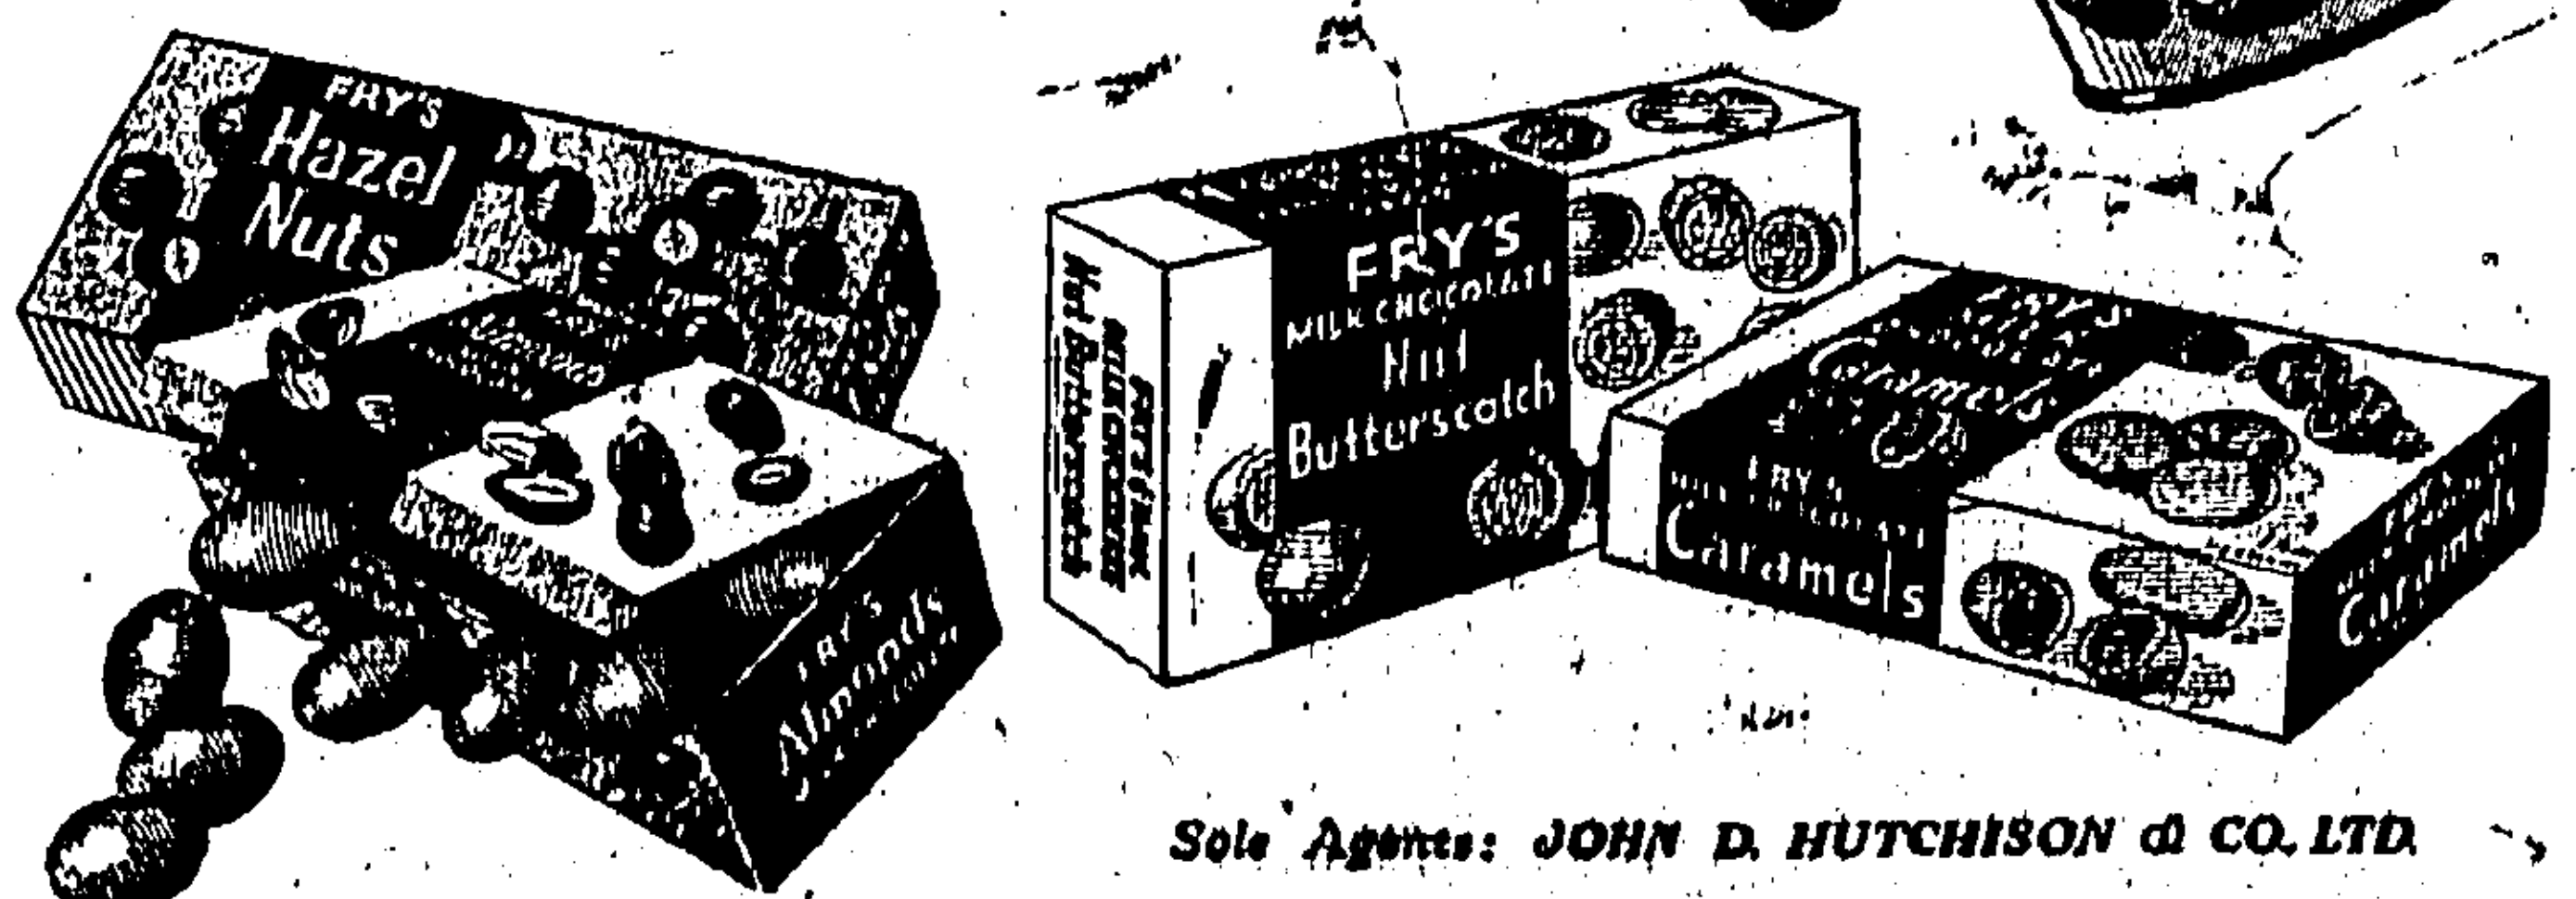

Call your Burroughs man

BORNEO SUMATRA TRADING CO. (H.K.) LTD.

Business Machines Department,

20-23 Caxton House, 1 Duddell St., H.K. Tel. 27105.

GO ON—
TREAT YOURSELF
TO FRY'S
FAMOUS FIVE

Sole Agents: JOHN D. HUTCHISON & CO. LTD.

KING'S · PRINCESS

★ GRAND OPENING TO-DAY ★
AT 2.30, 5.00, 7.20 & 9.40 P.M.
(Please note change of times)

THE COLOSSAL DRAMA OF THE MIGHTIEST COLOSSUS WHO EVER LIVED!
CECIL B. DEMILLE'S

SAMSON AND DELILAH

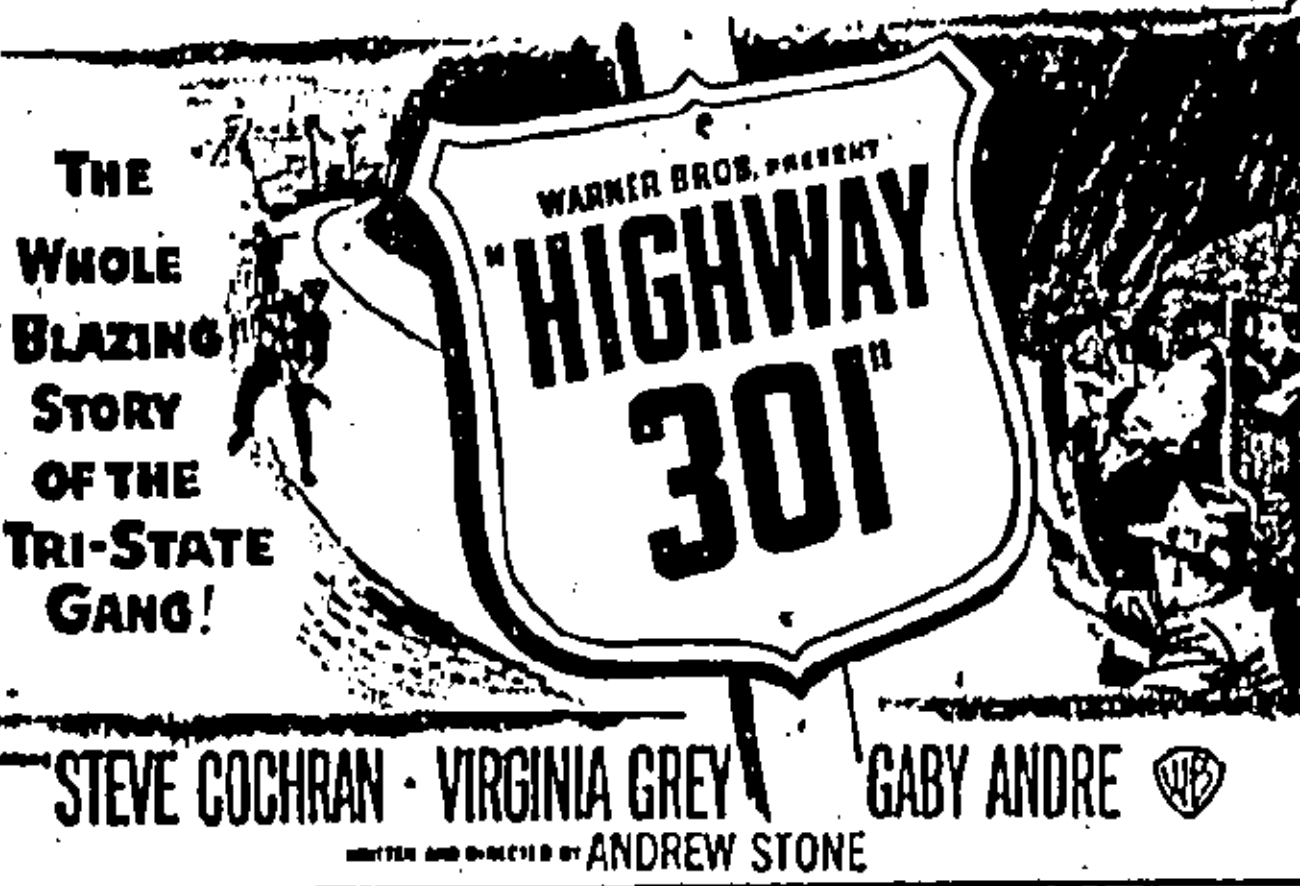

SEE the most awesome moment in history when Samson falls from the high tower, crushing his enemies under the weight of his strength!

BOOK EARLY TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT
PRINCESS: Matinee Show To-morrow 12.30 p.m.
Jean Simmons & Stewart Granger in "FOOTSTEPS IN THE FOG" (Color)

ROYAL · STATE

TEL. 60-5700 TEL. 77-3948
NOW SHOWING AT 2.30, 5.30, 7.30 & 9.30 P.M.

THE WHOLE BLAZING STORY OF THE TRI-STATE GANG!
STEVE COCHRAN · VIRGINIA GREY · GABY ANDRE
WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY ANDREW STONE

THE GOLDEN PHOENIX NIGHTCLUB AND RESTAURANT

1st Fl., Manson House, Nathan Road, Kowloon.
PROUDLY PRESENTS
THE BIGGEST FLOORSHOWS IN TOWN!

FOR RESERVATIONS PHONE 68305
BOOK YOUR TABLE EARLY TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT.

Last night's first night

LET'S STOP TREATING SHAKESPEARE WITH REVERENCE!

By JOHN LUFF

CONCERNING the "Taming of the Shrew" which opened last night at the Lake Yew Hall and was performed for our entertainment by the Hongkong Stage Club, produced by Mary Visick.

I can't help feeling that if only amateur companies, (and quite a few professional) would unlearn quite a bit they are taught at school, and reason Shakespeare out for themselves, we should get far better performances than we do.

For who was Shakespeare? He certainly was not someone going about writing examinations questions to plague students centuries ahead. He would be no subscriber to most of those formidable tomes; commenting on Shakespeare which clutter up the shelves of academy libraries.

First and last, he was a struggling trouper, a creature of the sawdust and the paint; an actor writing out good parts for himself and his fellows. And as such, he is unsurpassed.

Some did not

Fortunately, quite a few of the players last night did appear to know this; on the other hand, a few did not.

Thus it was that the opening of the play was laboured. The lines somewhat sing-song. Perfect in word but deadly dull. In fact, the play did not spark into life until Katherine (June Miller) and Petruchio (Scott MacDonald) started their slanging match, and then, hey-ho! and we were away.

Another good scene which collected the laughs was when Grumio (Noel de Guinand) was describing the wedding of Kate and Petruchio. It is a part, admittedly, which has plenty of business, but it was well done and much appreciated.

The second half of the play with shorter scenes and livelier action moved at a pace, was performed with greater confidence all round, and earned and received the applause given it.

A novice

You know the play, of course. The induction has Christopher Sly, a tinker, son of a sad drunken sot, and quite a bit of a sot himself, falling stupid with drink, being picked up by a waggish nobleman, and the "Taming of the Shrew" is performed for his delectation.

So while he is being bamboozled, we see through HIS eyes, and the play should be coloured by this fact.

Much nonsense has been talked about the choice of the play. It is a good play, absolutely typical of the Englishman, for to use a generalization, the Englishman has a laughing mind, even if he is a novice at humour. This play is the quintessence of such a state of mind.

There were many new comers. Making in of Connell as Bianca, the contrast of the Bery tempered Kate. Joseph Chan as an inebriated, if not a drunken Sly, and many others whom I will group and say will improve with further opportunities, and whose presence on the stage is an encouraging factor for the Hongkong theatre.

Inclined to ham

Richard Sheldon as Lucentio was a competent while David Kendall-Carpenter was inclined to ham it a bit. David Wong was a subdued Hortensio, but on the other hand Mr Sweetman could have played down his part somewhat.

Taking it by and large, the play was patchy. At times, the lines had the monotony of a train travelling along the tracks; and then it would flare up with all the brilliance of a firework display.

It was fortunate that there was a strong leading pair in June Miller and Scott MacDonald. They set the pace, and in support, in certain scenes, were a few who have been doing yeomen's service for years.

The costumes were colourful, the set and the lighting professional.

Sai Wan to have modern crematorium

A modern crematorium, with eight oil-fired furnaces, is to be built by Government at Sai Wan on a hillside off the road to Cape Collinson.

The construction of this new crematorium is in line with the Urban Council's policy of promoting cremation as a means of relieving the increasing pressure on the Colony's cemeteries.

3 BUILDINGS

The crematorium will consist of three separate buildings catering for the Christian, the Hindu and other faiths.

Construction will begin in about two months' time, and the buildings are expected to be ready for use towards the end of next year.

A Garden of Remembrance, sited in a natural setting, has already been formed on a nearby hill slope.

Vegetables, fish sold

Fresh vegetables marketed at the Wholesale Vegetable Market, Kowloon, in September, totalled 4,002.02 tons. Fish marketed in the same month totalled 3,405.9 tons.

New Sub Treasury

For the convenience of residents in the Causeway Bay district, a new Sub Treasury, to be known as the Causeway Bay Sub Treasury, will be opened on the second floor of the Causeway Bay Magistracy Building next Tuesday, November 1.

September births

Births registered in September totalled 11,110, including 10,983 Chinese and 133 non-Chinese. Deaths registered totalled 1,827, including 1,803 Chinese and 24 non-Chinese.

Government Appointments gazetted

The following appointments, transfers, promotions and postings were notified in today's Government Gazette:

Mr A. T. Clark to be senior administrative officer.
Mr I. F. McFest to be education officer.
Miss Margaret L. Gordon, to be school mistress.
Dr On Tui-lin to be a medical officer.

Mrs Ruby Huang Han-tu to be acting principal social welfare officer (child welfare) in the absence of Miss Jenny Cheung.

Dr W. G. L. Allan to be acting principal medical and health officer instead of Dr H. W. Holloway.

Dr E. N. F. Browne ceased to act as principal medical and health officer.

Mr E. B. Treadwell to be deputy colonial secretary instead of Mr D. C. C. Trench.

Mr J. Owens to be secretary, Marine Department instead of Mr H. S. Lapsley.

Mr A. Todd to be assistant establishment officer and assistant colonial secretary instead of Mr A. F. Richardson who is to be assistant secretary, colonial secretariat.

Mr Chiu Tse-yin and Mr Kwong Sik-kwong to be sub-inspectors of schools.

Mr J. A. H. Saunders ceased to be a member of the Trade and Industry Advisory Board following the return of Mr G. O. W. Stewart.

Mr A. J. Stoner ceased to be a member of the Traffic Advisory Committee following the return of Mr C. F. Wood.

Mr C. E. M. Terry ceased to act as Chairman of the Hongkong Tourist Association Board following the return of Mr W. C. G. Knowles.

Mr J. D. Duncanson ceased to be a member of the Hongkong Tourist Association Board following the return of Mr J. L. Murray.

Mr M. Gottfried ceased to act as deputy commandant, Auxiliary Police following resumption of duty by Mr E. C. van Helden.

$300 fine for driver with 53 convictions

A taxi driver who was involved in a collision with another car on Sunday and who had 52 previous convictions for traffic offences, was fined $300 or 14 days in jail, by Central Magistrate, Mr I. T. Morris today.

Wong Sum of 255 Cheungsham-wan-road allegedly crashed into a car driven by Mr Honi Shroff in Garden-road on Sunday. Mr Morris described Wong's driving as "bad and careless."

Land sale

A piece of Crown land in Kiu Tung to be used for commercial purposes will be sold by public auction at the Crown Lands and Survey Office in the Central Government Offices on November 28, at 3 p.m. The area of the lot is 12,000 sq. ft. and the upset price is $380,000.

Land resumption

Five lots of land Ngau Tau Kok will be resumed by the Crown after a month from today, the Government Gazette notified today.

The land is resumed for the redevelopment of North Kowloon.

The lots are Nos 933, 1024, 1025, 1026 and 1028.

$6 million profit

A final dividend of 42 cents a share for the year to June 30, was approved at the annual meeting of Amalgamated Rubber Estates Ltd, which reported a net profit of $6,419,378.

The Chairman, Mr D. W. Skinner, said that this increased profit was because of the higher rubber price and the improved crop.

Vice-Consul

Mr Bo Edwin Elfwendahl has been accorded formal recognition as Vice-Consul for Sweden at Hongkong, the Government Gazette notified today.

Lee Astor
TEL. 72436 TEL. 67777
2ND BIG WEEK
To-day At 2.30, 5.20, 7.30 & 9.40 p.m.
(Please Note Change of Times)

ROXY & MAJESTIC

SHOWING TO-DAY

At 2.30, 5.30, 7.30 & 9.30 p.m.
IT'S THE HIGH TIME OF YOUR LIFETIME

BING CROSBY · FABIAN
TUESDAY WELD · NICOLE MAUREY

SHAW CIRCUIT

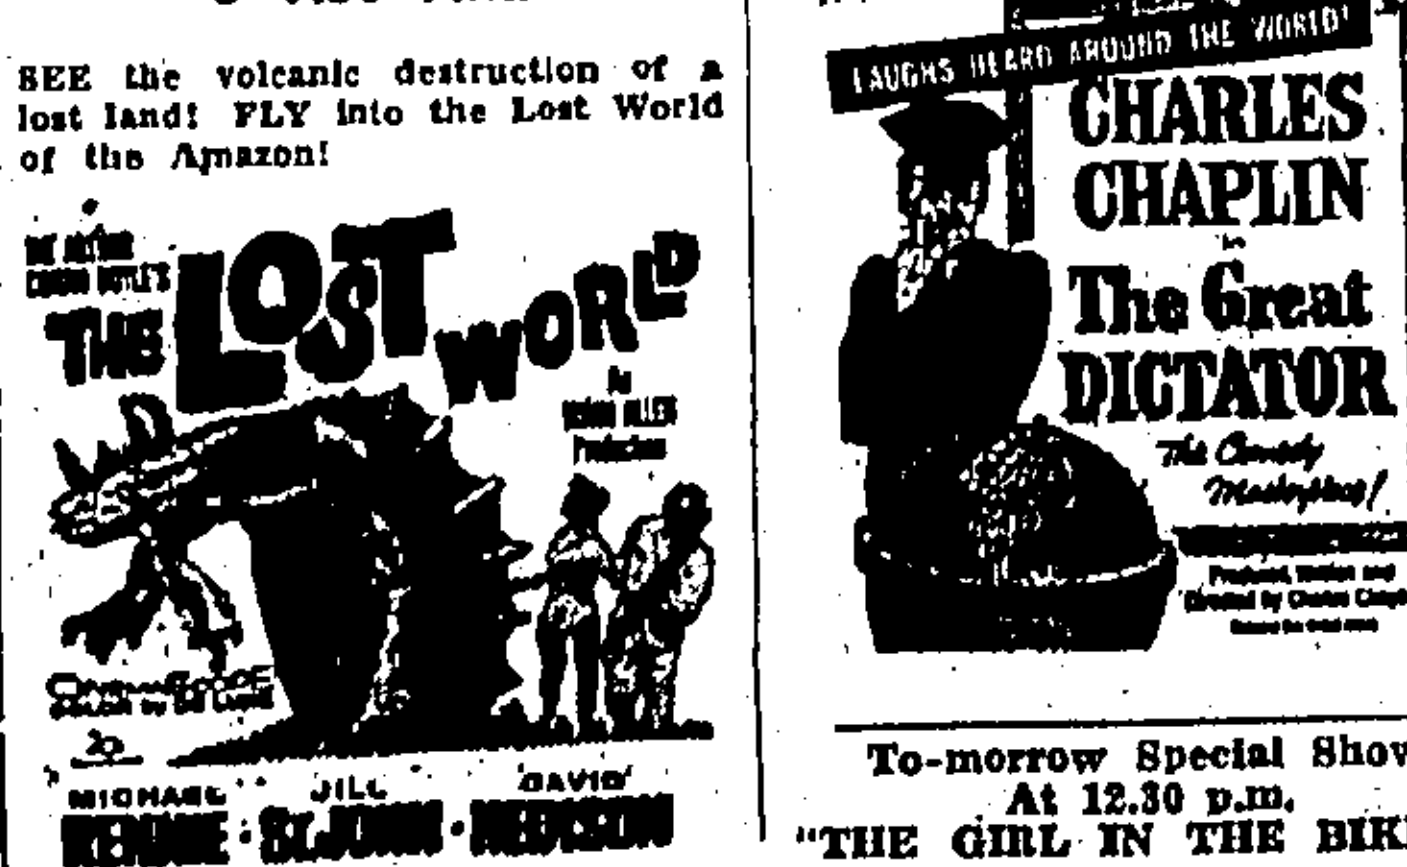

HOOVER · GALA

★ SHOWING TO-DAY ★
At 2.30, 5.30, 7.30 and 9.30 P.M.

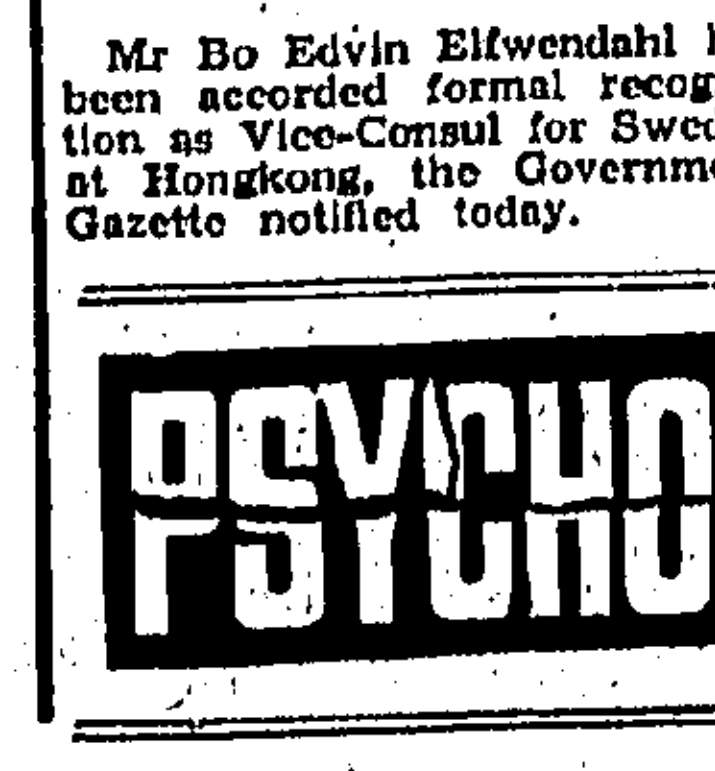

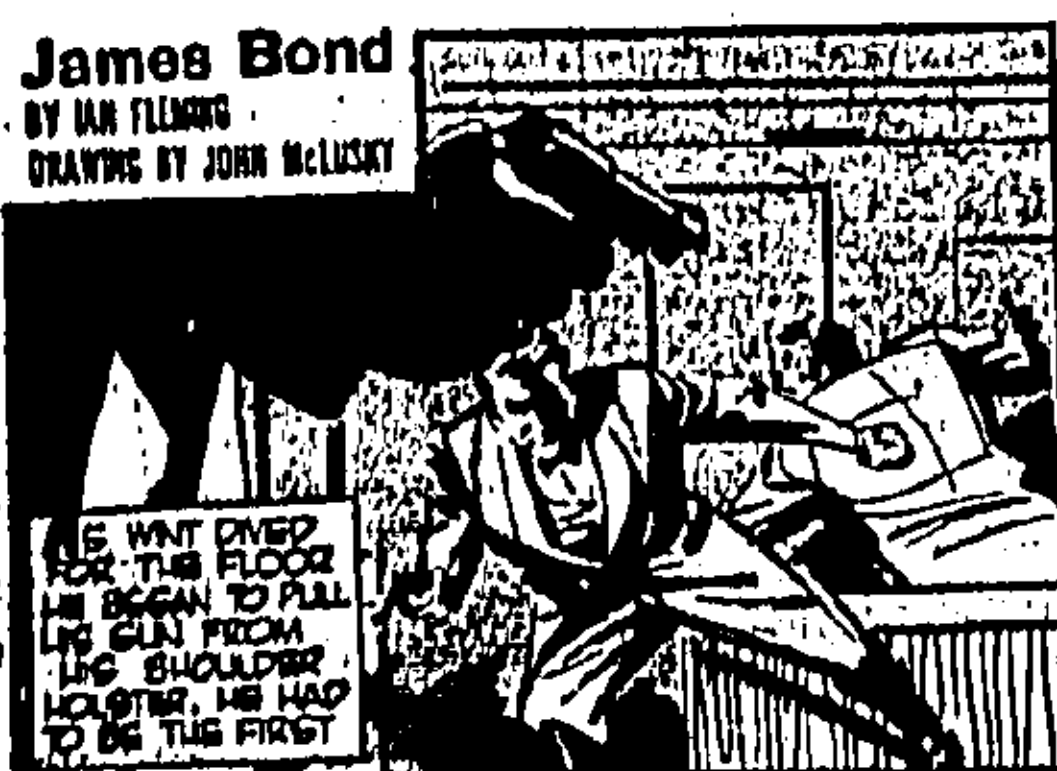

ORIENTAL RITZ

SHOWING TO-DAY
AT 2.30, 5.30, 7.30 & 9.30 P.M.

HONG KONG STAGE CLUB

Presents
"THE TAMING OF THE SHREW"
AT LOKE YEW HALL,
University of Hong Kong.
To-night at 8.30 p.m.
Saturday, 29th October at 9.00 p.m.
BOOKINGS AT MOUTRIES,
Alexandra House Arcade,
and at Lake Yew Hall an hour before commencement.

INTELLIGENCE REPORT

HOW THE SPIES GET OUT OF AMERICA

From Christopher Dobson

Washington. THE defection of Martin and Mitchell, the two code experts, to Russia has lent increased urgency to U.S. efforts to block off what has become the traditional escape route for Russian spies and defectors fleeing the F.B.I.—the route through Mexico to Czechoslovakia.

The problem has become even more urgent now with Cuba added to the route and with iron curtain tankers and freighters running a shuttle service into Havana.

The Mexican border, with its dozens of little border posts, has been a haven for men on the run ever since the first Indian bands fleeing from their reservations made their way south.

Examples

The Mexican Communist Party is strong. Anti-Americanism is strong also. Usually once a defector is south of the border he is safe. The examples are many.

JULIUS ROSENBERG, who was instrumental in giving the secret of the atom bomb to Russia and was later executed, where arrangements would be made for false passports which would take him and his wife to Czechoslovakia.

Greenblatt did not go, was arrested, "squealed," and was given a light sentence for naming his comrades.

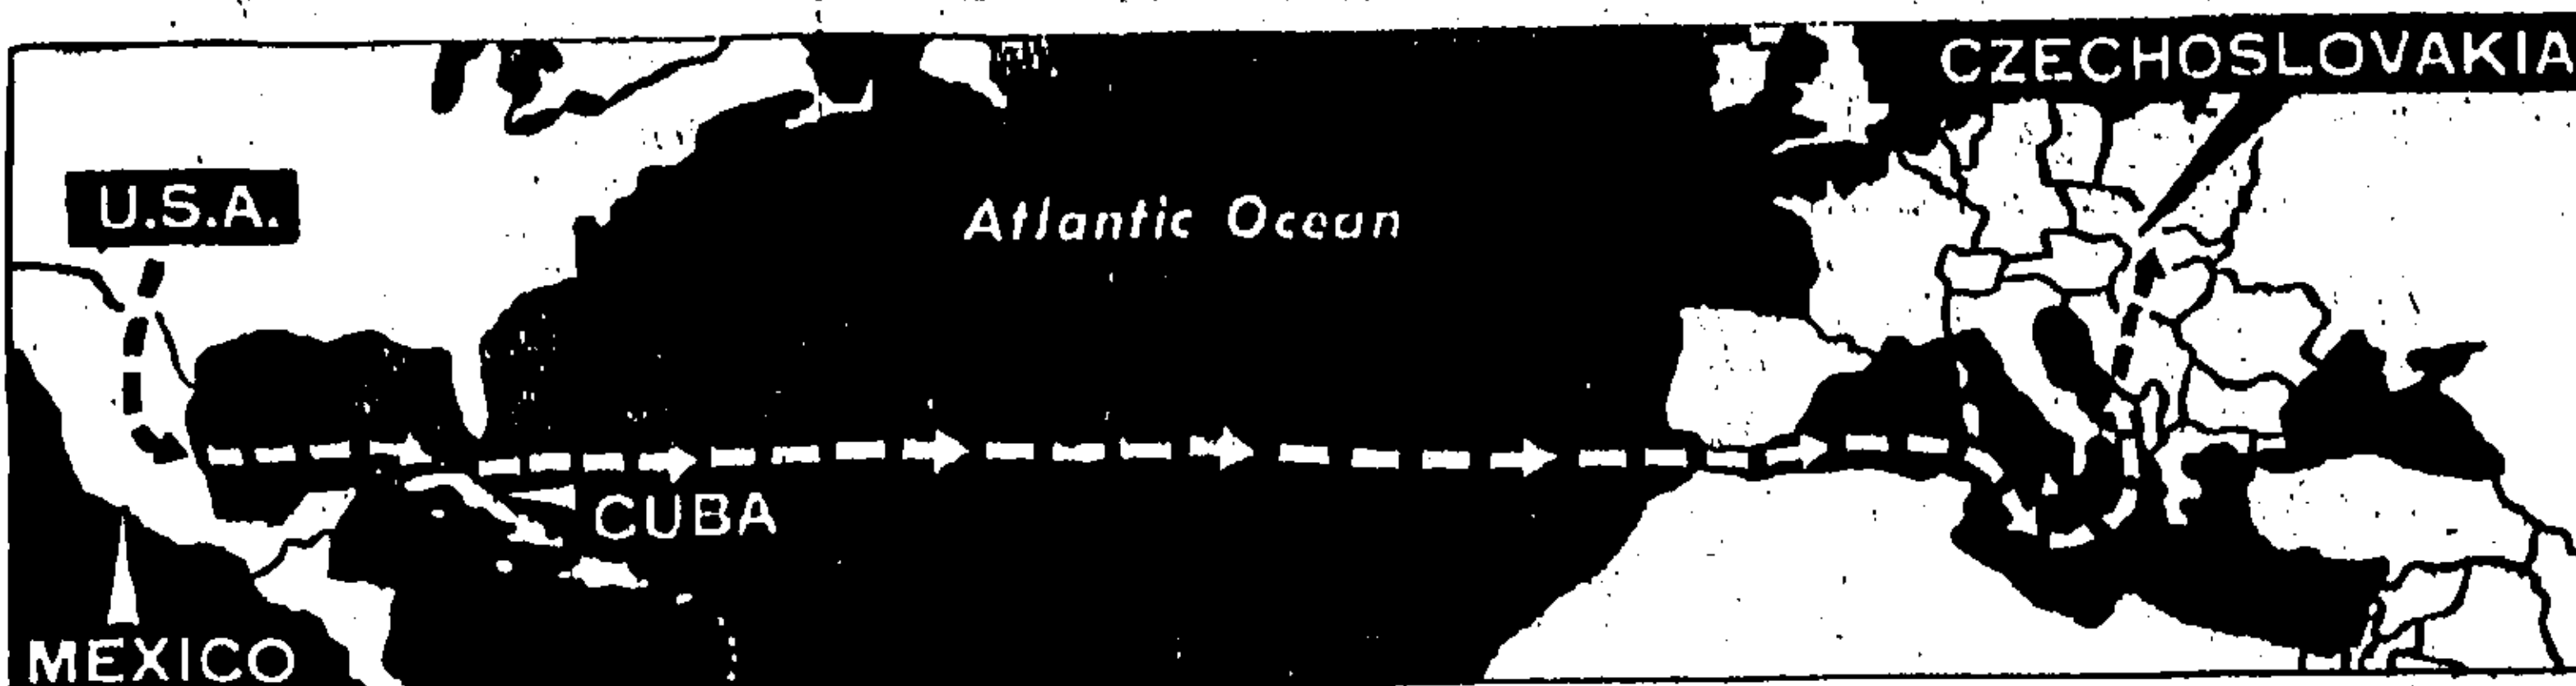

MARTIN MITCHELL

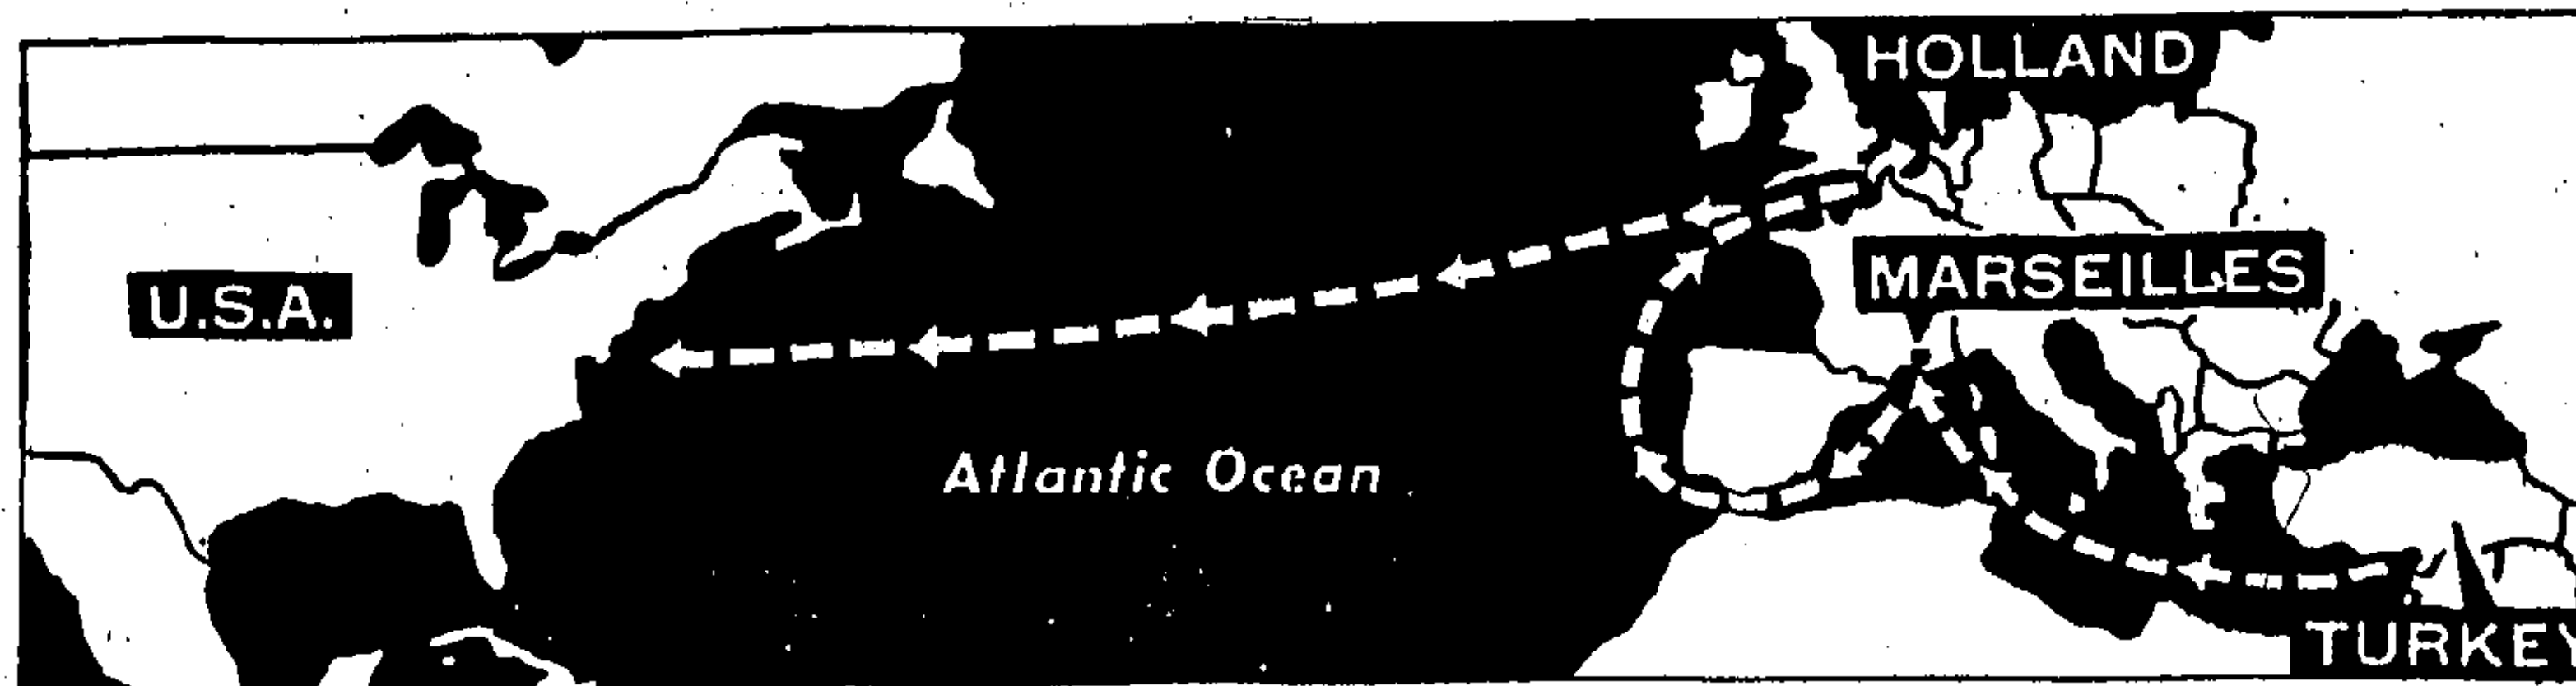

A Soviet agent operating under the name of IGNACY WITCZAK, whose real name is still not known but who became an assistant professor of political science at the University of Southern California, is also thought to have taken the Mexican route home.

And now Martin and Mitchell have proved that the south of the border route is still open. The Americans are trying hard to plug the bolt holes. It is a vastly difficult problem because thousands of American tourists and wives and husbands seeking quick divorces drive over the border every year.

The column in the know discloses two hot trails

Exit route for U.S. defectors. First hop is also used by marital malcontents seeking quick exit from wedlock

Export route for narcotics. From Turkish factories to U.S. addicts, fat profits for sea-faring dope pushers

HOW THE DOPE GETS OUT OF TURKEY

From Robin Stafford

Istanbul. THE 116lb. of heroin found on the Guatemalan Ambassador to Belgium and the Netherlands by New York narcotics detectives early this month probably came from Turkey.

Turkey is one of the few places in the world (Persia is another) where opium poppies grow like weeds. There is even a town near Ankara called Opium (in Turkish it is Afyon). Here illicit "factories" refine opium into morphine and heroin—particular favourites nowadays with the American teen-age addicts.

On the waterfront on the Asian and European sides of the Bosphorus, little packages are given to seamen to start the long, secret journey to America and the Middle East countries.

The chief "America" route passes from Istanbul to Marseilles. There, Riviera narcotics police practically tear apart every ship arriving from Turkey. But the dope pushers are still smuggling "snuff," through France up to Cherbourg, Le Havre, and the Netherlands ports where highly paid carriers sell to America. Tremendous profits can be made. 116lb. of heroin can fetch anything from £1,500,000 to £7,000,000 in the United States.

Turkish dope peddlers have now opened up a highly profitable second opium route to Cairo.

Until now Egyptian dope fleets preferred hashish—a cheap weed which grows practically everywhere—even on a window-sill.

But now peddlers are getting Egyptians interested in heroin and morphine, hitherto considered a sophisticated white man's "kick."

BANZAI!

The spirit is loose again

From BERTRAM JONES

Tokyo. THE ASSASSINATION of Socialist leader Inejiro Asanuma has started a wave of uneasiness that the old Banzai spirit which started the imperial wars on their conquests is loose in Japan again.

And the United States—who handed Japan's 90,000,000 people a detailed democracy and a new Constitution after the war—is watching carefully. So are the Japanese police. In their bid to stamp out political terrorism a new word is being written into their docters: Uyoku.

Uyoku means "rightist." The sort of fanatical ultra-nationalist who might regard murder as justified if it helps to sway a nation the way he wants it to go.

They have uncovered 350 embryo uyoku organizations scattered throughout Japan and estimated their total membership at 30,000. Each group leader considers himself a patriotic hero.

The promise Nehru won't give...

From PETER CHANDLER

New Delhi.

IS Premier Nehru planning to manufacture atomic weapons and so rival China's atomic strength in Asia? He is keeping the Indian people and the world guessing on this vital question.

India has invited world tenders for the construction of her first 300-megawatt nuclear power station, which will also produce plutonium suitable for military use.

But Nehru and his atomic energy chief, Dr Homi Bhabha, are strongly opposed to giving any guarantees against using plutonium for producing atomic weapons.

'We know'

Britain and the United States normally insist on such guarantees before handing over nuclear plant.

The official line in Delhi is: "We do not want any atomic weapons though we know how to produce them theoretically." Any other line would bring down Nehru's Government for India's 400 million population has been brought up in pacifist traditions.

But a senior official of the Atomic Energy Department in Delhi told me today: "Why should the West, armed with all its fearful bombs, want India to give such undertakings?" If Britain and the United States stand firm and refuse to provide nuclear equipment without such guarantees where can Nehru turn?

France, recently arrived in the atomic field, has already expressed interest. She has assigned a senior engineer to work here in the uranium mines. President de Gaulle may not be so stringent in his demand for guarantees.

And privately hints have been dropped here that Moscow, contrary to her normal practice, may tender to provide plant for the new station. It is also revealed that India is planning not just one nuclear power station, but a chain of at least three. The first, at the tiny coastal town of Tarapur, 60 miles north of Bombay, will be ready for operation in 1962. A second is planned in the North, and a third in South India, away from coalfields. And unknown to the Indian people the biggest uranium hunt ever is on. Two hundred hand-picked scientists and geologists are scouring the countryside for more atomic minerals.

Why they are so keen to speak French here

From Ian Aitken

Accra.

OFFICIAL Government offices in Ghana from Ministries down to technical agencies will soon be able to post up a proud and politically significant notice "Ici on parle Francais."

A crash programme of intensive French language courses is already well under way in all Government departments. Government workers from Ministers to clerks have gone back to school—by order of President Kwame Nkrumah.

Reason: to consolidate and strengthen Ghana's (and therefore Nkrumah's) leadership of newly independent nations of black Africa, and to strengthen the existing link between Nkrumah and Guinea's extreme Leftist French-educated President Sekou Touré.

Ultimate aim: formation of a Pan-African Union (dominated, of course, by Ghana and therefore by Nkrumah) that can break the existing link between the British Commonwealth and the French Community.

But Nkrumah, whose three and a half years' leadership of independent Ghana puts him well ahead in the race for Pan-African seniority, fears further delay may give nearby Nigeria a chance to wrest African leadership from his hands.

Nigeria, which reached independence this month, is now by far the most populous independent African nation. But Nkrumah banks on the calculation that its leaders will be too preoccupied with their own affairs in the next few years to become an immediate threat to his leadership.

In the breathing space he hopes to round up a flock of French-speaking nations under his black-star banner. (London Express Service).

LUIGI OF THE SAVOY LOOKS BACK ON THE GOLDEN ERA...

"A RESTAURANT without women is like a garden deprived of the sun," I was told by Luigi, the man who managed the Savoy Grill for 20 years. He has now taken over Claridge's Restaurant. And I think one of the reasons why he has charged is that there are still beautiful women around in Claridge's, at lunchtime and in the evening.

Luigi in his commanding position as manager of the grill room, where the brains and the beauty of Britain have eaten, flirted, conspired and made deals, should be a social historian of the quality of Boswell.

He is able to bring out remarks like this: "Sir Winston is one of the biggest eaters I have ever known. He would eat a whole chicken, and a piece of beef—and then, if he felt like it, would treat all that as an hors d'oeuvre and on to a full meal. Sometimes he would start with a dozen oysters and follow it up with two plates of soup and a steak with a bottle of champagne. "Mr Macmillan's favourite dish is kidneys and bacon."

by Donald Edgar

the Queen, then Princess Elizabeth, came to the hotel and asked to meet all the heads of the departments.

"We were all presented to her and she thanked us all for all we had done."

One must give it to the Savoy that it would be only there where the heir to the throne would go along and thank people like restaurant managers, chefs and banqueting managers.

Luigi's memories come out of a memory which is good but erratic.

"Going back to Sir Winston," he said, "I suppose you know he likes a rest after lunch. We always used to have a room ready for him so that he could have a lie down if he felt like it."

"You remember he went to prison for a petrol offence during the war."

"It was quite extraordinary. Everybody clapped him as they saw him come in."

"But then, it's a curious business, the clientele of the Savoy Grill. I was born an Italian. In 1940 I was interned."

And the late Lord Derby got up from his table and said to me: "I am happy to see you here. It is that sort of thing that makes you realise how great a people the English are."

"During the war we had to have waitresses here. And I remember one evening discovering that nearly all of them seemed to be dropping plates, and in a general state of lousy. I discovered the reason was that Clark Gable was there. He was in uniform."

important function is to make sure that when the husband is out with somebody else's wife, and the wife is out with somebody else's husband, that they don't see each other—or, at any rate, are not in the restaurant at the same time.

"I suppose that I could say that my greatest achievement has been that I have kept them apart."

A fact

It is a fact, of course, that in recent years the Savoy Grill, at lunchtime especially, is no longer quite the centre of fashion it once was.

Fewer women adorn the place. It is mainly a question of business-men's expense account lunches—and they don't make the most exciting company. I have sometimes looked across the room late at night and peeped the tables with the men and women I have seen there in the past.

Princess Margaret, Billy Wallace, Dawn Addams, Errol Flynn, Nubar Gulbenkian, Sir Anthony Eden.

It was to the Savoy Grill that they all came. And Luigi, with a wicked smile on his face, and a soft deprecating shrug of his shoulders, was always there to make sure that even if it was expensive, it was rather fun—London Express Service.

He could never resist a woman

WHEN William Hickey, the once-busy, well-to-do lawyer from Calcutta settled down at Beaconsfield three years after Trafalgar, he found time and idleness hung heavily on his hands. Scenes from his life flitted into his mind and, through his pen, on to a manuscript book that in due course was seven hundred and forty folio pages long.

What scenes in particular? Serious and profitable State business in India? Important political intrigues? The conversation of the grave and famous? Not at all.

"Woman, dear lovely woman," he confided "I never could resist."

The fashionable tropic of London in the days of Hickey's youth.

"Sally Hudson, Clara Hayward, Mrs Sturges, Mrs Latour, the two Larkins, vis-a-vis Townsend—so-called from keeping a dashing carriage of that description—Lucy Wells, Kit, Frederick, Cleveland and many others."

Names that might belong to the female characters in The Beggar's Opera. Names that Hickey had no difficulty in remembering years later.

In Soho

For had he not, many a time, been one of the party that gathered in Willie's, the ballroom lock-up house in Soho, when one of the young ladies of the town was unlucky enough to be arrested for debt?

by George M. Thomson and eating well and cossetting the debtor until the money was paid, Willie, taking a broad view of his duties, had no objection if the woman who was short of money went out on an evening to find it where and as she could.

When he was no more than a schoolboy Hickey had frequented the taverns and brothels of the Drury Lane area, dens of vice like Slaughter's or Wotherby's. Of the latter he gives a lurid description—two she-devils were engaged in a scratching and boxing match, their faces entirely covered with blood, bosoms bare and the clothes nearly torn from their bodies. Not a creature interfered between description.

A worry

From Wotherby's (no liquor after 8 am) Hickey went on to Murphy's (drinks until 5). After that, there was the Soup Shop where it was the custom to take ox-cheek, broth at 8 am. Last came coffee in a shed in Covent Garden Market significantly called The Finish. Young Hickey had a pre-cooked soup for low life.

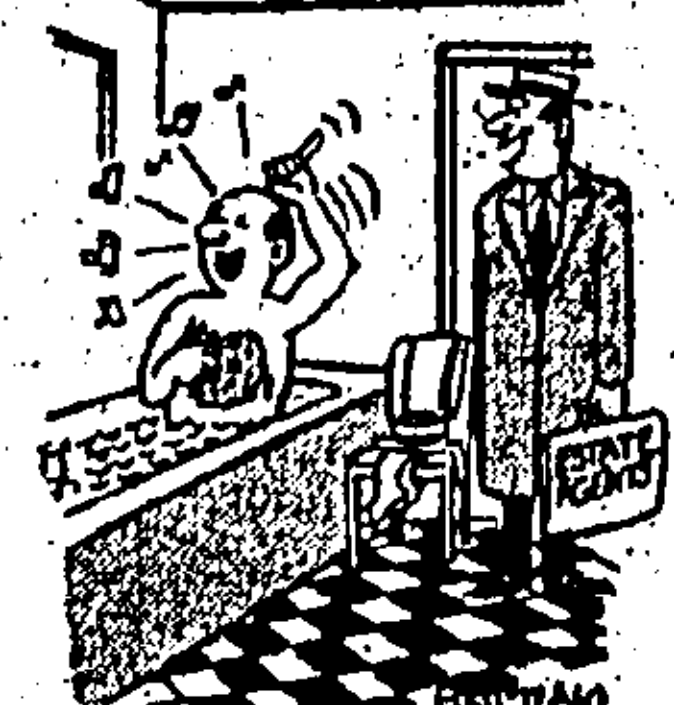

from his memoirs can be reconstructed a guide to the vice-spots of London in the eighteenth century; a portrait gallery of the more notorious women. He was, as might be expected, a considerable worry to his father, a prosperous London solicitor of Irish birth.

When Hickey junior took 2500 of Hickey senior's money to spend on drink and women, it was obvious to the father that something had to be done. The young man was packed off to the East, leaving behind a fond mistress.

With the same utter lack of hypocrisy, Hickey tried to seduce the 16-year-old daughter of a drawing master who had been kind to him.

In the end, he fell desperately in love with a woman "then in high vogue" named Charlotte Barry. Charlotte refused to marry him but took his name. She was the real passion of his life.

Hickey is not a Boswell. His interests are too narrow. He is a bird that flies close to the ground. He has neither Boswell's genius, nor his shrewdly.

"Now that you've tested the acoustics sir, will you be interested in buying the house?"

"Are we part of the point of my return?"

JACOBY on BRIDGE

NORTH (D) 10

♠ A 8 3
♥ 10 7 2
♦ A Q 10 8 6
♣ J 7

WEST EAST

♠ K Q J 10 2 ♠ 9 7 5 4
♥ A 8 4 ♥ J 9
♦ 7 4 ♦ 9 5 3 2
♣ 10 8 5 ♣ 9 8 4

SOUTH

♠ 6
♥ K Q 5 3
♦ K J
♣ A K Q 3 2

No one vulnerable

North	East	South	West
1 ♠	Pass	1 ♥	1 ♠
2 ♥	Pass	4 N.T.	Pass
5 ♥	Pass	6 ♥	Pass
Pass	Pass

Opening lead—♠ K

♥♣CARD Sense♠♦

Answer Tomorrow

LADY ♡ LUCK-
YOUR CHINA MAIL HOROSCOPE

LEO (July 22-August 21)
If too much is expected of you, you had better make it clear that you are already

YOUR BIRTHDAY: If this is your birthday some unexpected funds will improve your position considerably and you will be happy to be able to help a needy relative.

The fashion started with one little number by Chanel—a plain and Paisley-patterned cardigan suit—and it spread like a forest fire. Now Paisley-patterned jackets and jumpers team with mix 'n' match skirts and slacks to make some of the slickest casuals in town. These are the "easy" clothes with a touch of genius—Chanel's genius. Buy them separately—or mix them to suit yourself.

PICTURE BY JOHN ADRIAN

PICTURE BY JOHN ADRIAN

IT'S SO PEACEFUL BY STEAM ROLLER

Son of a sausage and steak kidney pie empire - builder,
speculator, and real estate ma

"I can't get moving in anything under an hour and a half from the start.
"But isn't she a little beauty?"

For days he debated, then finally he settled on a woman friend of ours who lives nearby.

There was something of an anti-climax when he went to present it and she was out.

"I knew absolute peace!
"I've christened her For-
Queen—no question of Tiny Tim or Two-Ton Tessie, or any no-sense like that.
"Steam rollers are to admired. They're not to

to make a guardsman hide head! So huge and so hairy!
"Made in Italy and exclus
to us," runs the caption.
All this for 3. guineas!

There is frost on the grass
a nip in the air.
I cannot wait for my h

menacing.

☆ ☆ ☆

"The time is now precisely 8.30," cries a brisk announcer. At which I wipe my eye and start dressing—swiftly.

Treatment for your carpet

CHILD

REN'S C

of the darkness. However, they moved through the tunnel quickly.

Soon they were outside again in the bright sunshine. And then what wonderful

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Wonderful Train Ride

—It's All Aboard For Chocolate Treats—

Then everyone in the Playroom made a rush to get on the train. The platform was behind the Bookcase and the tracks ran straight along until they disappeared in the hole in the wall.

of the darkness. However, they moved through the tunnel quickly.

Soon they were outside again in the bright sunshine. And then what wonderful then climbed aboard the locomotive where, giving several sharp blasts on the whistle, the train started rattling along.

Now the view from the train

Rupert and the

But everyone else said that was quite plain that they were real houses although they admitted that they did, if you looked hard enough, somewhat
resemble the backs of books.

"It's no good," he moaned.
"We're only heavy enough
keep it at this height. There
no way of making it go down."
Then he thinks, "That factor
ALL RIGHT

PEARS
THERESE
(FOR 4)

If you like the flavour of cinnamon, add a small piece of stick of it to the apples in the first place.

Reduce the remaining syrup to a fairly thick one, add a tablespoon of port wine and

This sweet is pleasant, too, when flared. Warm measure of brandy in ladle, pour it over the fruit and set it alight at table.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Wonderful Train Ride

—It's All Aboard For Chocolate Treats—

Then everyone in the Playroom made a rush to get on the train. The platform was behind the Bookcase and the tracks ran straight along until they disappeared in the hole in the wall.

of the darkness. However, they moved through the tunnel quickly.

Soon they were outside again in the bright sunshine. And then what wonderful then climbed aboard the locomotive where, giving several sharp blasts on the whistle, the train started rattling along.

Now the view from the train

Rupert and t

But everyone else said that was quite plain that they were real houses although they admitted that they did, if you
looked hard enough, somewhat
resemble the backs of books.

"It's no good," he moaned.
"We're only heavy enough
keep it at this height. There
no way of making it go down."
Then he thinks, "That factor
ALL RIGHT

Rupert and the Sky-boat—31

The two little pals are now very frightened. Rupert stops turning his handle to let the strange creature drift and then drives it on again. "It's no good," he moans. "We're only heavy enough keep it at this height. There's no way of making it go down." Then he thinks. "That factor chimney is pulling air and clouds in. Let's see if we can use that. He manages to get into a cloud and at once they are dragged lower. Just before reaching the chimney he drives the boat out of the current, hoping his speed will carry him on towards the ground.

RAPIER'S RACING COMMENTS

Nine races in tomorrow's Second Meeting

HEY, WHAT'S GOING ON HERE?

When it comes to taking a grip on a situation (Hill's ones of Spurs and Wales is your man. Here the Welsh left-winger is caught by the camera during the international at Cardiff last week. The man in his clutches? Scotland's goalkeeper Leslie. Wales beat Scotland 2-0 in this match.

Chess Olympiad qualifying rounds concluded

Leipzig, Oct. 27. Adjourned matches in the qualifying round of the 1960 Chess Olympics were completed today.

Twelve countries have qualified for the finals. They are Russia, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, East and West Germany, Argentina, the Netherlands, England, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, the United States and Rumania. Play will be resumed on Friday.

THE HONG KONG JOCKEY CLUB

2ND RACE MEETING

Saturday, 29th October, 1960

(To be held under the Rules of the Hong Kong Jockey Club)

THE PROGRAMME WILL CONSIST OF 9 RACES

The First Bell will be rung at 1.30 p.m. and the First Race at 2.00 p.m.

The Secretary's Office at Alexandra House will close at 11.45 a.m.

MEMBERS' ENCLOSURE

No person without an Admission Badge will be admitted. Admission Badges must be prominently displayed throughout the meeting.

Admission Badges at $25.00 each are obtainable only on the written introduction of a Member. Admission Badges may be obtained during office hours from the Cash Sweep Offices of the Club at Queen's Building, Chater Road; 5, D'Aguiar Street; King's Road, North Point and 382, Nathan Road. ADMISSION BADGES WILL NOT BE ON SALE AT THE SECRETARY'S OFFICE AND WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE AT THE RACE COURSE ON RACE DAYS.

Titles will be obtainable at the Club House if ordered in advance from the No. 1 Boy (Tel. 72811).

Members, Ladies wearing Ladies Brooches, and their Guests must enter the Members Enclosure by the entrance to the Members Stand.

Members wishing to proceed to Club Boxes on the 4th and 5th Floors of the new Public Stand must do so from the 2nd Floor of the Members Stand, using the lift or stairs.

Apert from the foregoing, Members, their Ladies, and Members Guests are not permitted to enter the Public Enclosure and Stand.

NO CHILDREN under the age of seventeen years (Western Standard) will be admitted to the Club's premises during the Meeting.

PUBLIC ENCLOSURE

The price of admission will be $10.00 each payable at the Gate. Admission Badges will be issued and they must be prominently displayed throughout the Meeting.

Any person leaving the Enclosure will be required to pay the requisite fee of $10.00 in order to gain re-admission.

MEALS and REFRESHMENTS will be available in the RESTAURANT.

CASH SWEEPS

Through Cash Sweep Tickets at $18.00 each may be obtained from the Cash Sweep Offices at Queen's Building, Chater Road; 5, D'Aguiar Street and 382, Nathan Road, Kowloon, during office hours.

Tickets reserved and available but not paid for by 10.00 a.m. on Friday, 28th October, 1960, will be sold and the reservation cancelled for future Meetings.

Special Cash Sweep Tickets on the Kwangtung Handicap scheduled to be run on 12th November, 1960, at $20.00 each may be obtained from the Cash Sweep Offices of the Club.

The office hours of the Cash Sweep Offices of the Club are as follows:

Queen's Building, Chater Road and 5, D'Aguiar Street, Hong Kong:

Monday to Fridays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Saturday, 22nd October 9 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.
Saturday, 29th October 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

King's Road, North Point, Hong Kong and 382, Nathan Road, Kowloon:

Monday to Fridays 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Saturday, 22nd October 9 a.m. to 11.45 a.m.
Saturday, 29th October 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

By Order of the Stewards,
A. E. Arnold,
Secretary.

Hong Kong, 22nd October, 1960.

VANITY FAIR, GOOD FUN ARE BEST BETS FOR THE TWO SECTIONS OF THE MAIN EVENT

The Second Race Meeting of the Hongkong Jockey Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at Happy Valley with a programme of nine events.

The first saddling bell will be rung at 1.30 pm and the First Race will start at 2 pm.

The highlight of the meeting will be the running of the two sections of the Hennessy Handicap for Class 2 ponies over the mile.

Here are my views of the chances:

FIRST RACE

Robinson Handicap (First Section): Six Furlongs.

Ponies in the first section of Class 2 will contest the opening event of the afternoon for Novice Riders.

If it can get off to a good breakaway, Mayfair (H. Fattydad) looks the best bet here.

Beautiful Phoenix (James Chow) is quite at home over this distance and should have a say here.

Mascot (J. B. Lim), although unplaced the last time out, is not bad over this distance and should not be treated lightly.

Ever Yours (Stanley Ho) and Cheshington (J. C. Neel) may have something to say here and they should be watched.

SECOND RACE

Granville Plate: One Mile.

This race is confined to 1960 Class C ponies.

Game Pie (K. Kwok) and Justin (Cruz) have shown gradual improvement in morning workouts. I particularly liked the way the former was moving and my vote goes to the bay mare.

A good outsider is Honey (H. M. Botelho) while Altruism (Chun Kit) and Fluker (H. K. Cheng) stand an outside chance of winning.

THIRD RACE

Conduit Plate (First Section): Six Furlongs.

This race will be contested by 1960 Class B ponies. The weight assigned is 147 lbs but non-Stakes winners will be given 5 lbs allowance. Ponies which have won over $250 in Stakes, will be penalised 3 lbs.

Sing Chi (M. A. C. Roza) is due for a win and has been training well. It has never been in better shape than it is right now.

Miss Allison (Plumbly), Good Win (C. Y. Wong) and Triso (Chun Kit) are also in good condition and should figure prominently at the finish.

FOURTH RACE

Conduit Plate (Second Section): Six Furlongs.

This is another race for 1960 ponies B class.

Benefaction (C. P. Lai) and Golden Rule (Albert Lam) should fight out the issue in this event. I prefer the former.

East Coast (K. Kwok) is dangerous too and a longer shot is Camellia (C. Y. Wong).

FIFTH RACE

Hennessy Handicap (First Section): One Mile.

Vanity Fair (Plumbly), having hit winning form, can make it two in a row over this distance.

Chiu Tze Loong (R. Tsai) is good for this distance and will take a lot of beating.

Lynner (Allan Chan) also has been very consistent of late in training and has a rosy chance of success.

Grand Moment (K. Kwok) and Permanent View (H. C. Pih) are fit enough to cause an upset here.

SIXTH RACE

Bowen Plate: Six Furlongs.

This race will be fought out by 1960 Class A ponies, each carrying 147 lbs. Non-winners will, however be given 7 lbs allowance.

Missus J. has been well tuned up for this sprint race and should provide P. Plumbly an opportunity to score.

Bon Voyage (Cruz) ran impressively the last time out, and is very fit, posing as a potential threat here.

A good outsider is Pixie (K. Kwok) while Arrowhead (H. M. Botelho) also stands an outside chance of winning.

SEVENTH RACE

Stables Handicap: 1 1/2 Miles.

Shillelagh (T. H. Yau) is in fine condition at the moment and if it starts well should be ahead at the finish.

Other dangerous opponents in this race are Resurrection (H. K. Hung) and Carolis (C. Y. Wong).

EIGHTH RACE

Robinson Handicap (Second Section): Six Furlongs.

It is about time Bowsprit (C. Y. Wong) came into his own. In my estimation he has only Beautiful Flower (Robert Tsai) to contend with and should have the better of the argument at the finishing line.

Miss Otis (Plumbly) may agreeably surprise her connections with a belated win.

An upset could come from Flying Phoenix (Andrew Lam).

NINTH RACE

Hennessy Handicap (Second Section): One Mile.

Good Fun (Plumbly) will command strong support in the last race of the Second Race Meeting, but will have the difficult task of beating a very fit Maytime (Allan Chan) and Trooper (Andrew Lam).

Other ponies which have shown improvement in training are Edinburg (Starr Lau) and Sincerely Yours (Wan Shek-ming).

Eddy Yusuf regains Indonesia singles badminton title

Djakarta, Oct. 27. Indonesian Thomas Cup player Eddy Yusuf regained the Men's Singles title of the Indonesian Open Badminton Championships in Purwokerto, West Java last night. He defeated, title-holder Lee Po-tjan in straight sets 15-11, 18-15.

Yusuf, who was champion in 1958, played at his best and continuously worried young Lee with excellent, net drops and accurate smashes.

The all-Indonesian final came as a surprise because earlier in the tournament Thailand's junior champion Sangtho Ratunorn caused the biggest upset in eliminating veteran Indonesian player Ferry Sonneville in the second round of the men's final.

Lee, however, retrieved the situation for his country when he defeated Sangtho in the semi-finals 17-15, 18-2.

In other results announced by the Indonesian Badminton Association tonight, Manarti retained the women's title when she beat Corry Kawilarang 11-2, 11-8.

Malayan pair Ng Boon-bee and Tan Yee-kan won the Men's Doubles when they beat Siamese players Sangbo Ratunorn and Sangun Anan-thon 15-8, 13-15, 16-1.

About two hundred players including eight from Malaya and two from Thailand took part in the tournament.—AFP.

ENGLAND AND OPTIMIST CRICKET TEAMS

The following teams have been selected to represent England and the Optimists in matches this weekend:

ENGLAND

Versus Rest of Commonwealth on Sunday, at Chater-road, commencing at 11.30 am.

R. H. Hughes (Captain), G. H. P. Pritchard, G. T. Rowe, F. A. Weller, D. Stevenson, N. R. Broomfield, V. Fairhall, S. Hill, K. G. Spink, M. Duggan, W. E. G. Williams.

Umpire: J. Priestley.

HKCC OPTIMISTS

Versus Garrison on Saturday at Chater-road, commencing at 1.30 pm.

G. T. Rowe, J. Corkhill, G. H. P. Pritchard, C. J. B. Leader, W. W. Fowler, J. Baker, R. Rayson, K. G. Spink, W. E. G. Williams, A. Zimmerman, M. Duggan.

Umpire: J. Priestley.

Bounteous wins Dewhurst Stakes

Newmarket, Oct. 27. Mrs H. Leggat's Bounteous won the seven furlongs Dewhurst Stakes here today.

Mrs A. Plesch's Peldium was second with Mrs R. H. Jessel's Flambeau third. Seven Ran.

Official starting prices were: 2-1 favourite Bounteous, 5-1 Peldium, 10-1 Flambeau.

Bounteous won by three-quarters of a length with one and a half lengths between second and third.—China Mail Special.

MCC-Australia cricket pact

London, Oct. 27. The MCC today indicated that an agreement has been reached with Australia about procedure for the next Test cricket series.

An official announcement about the agreement reached with Australia concerning the forthcoming will be made on November 3, the MCC said today.—AFP.

World record

Riga, Oct. 27. Weightlifter Doga Novsky bettered his own lightweight record with 141 kilograms here today.

He set the former record of 140.500 kgs on December 11, 1959.—AFP.

NOTICE

THE HONG KONG JOCKEY CLUB

Programmes and Entry Forms for the 3rd Race Meeting 1960/61 to be held on Saturday 12th and Monday 14th November, 1960, (weather permitting) may be obtained at the Secretary's Office, Alexandra House; the Club House, Happy Valley; and the Stables, Shann Kwong Road.

Entries close at 12 o'clock NOON on Tuesday, 1st November, 1960.

By Order of the Stewards,
A. E. Arnold,
Secretary.

Cut this out and take it to the races

tomorrow for your guidance

Starters, Weights And Riders

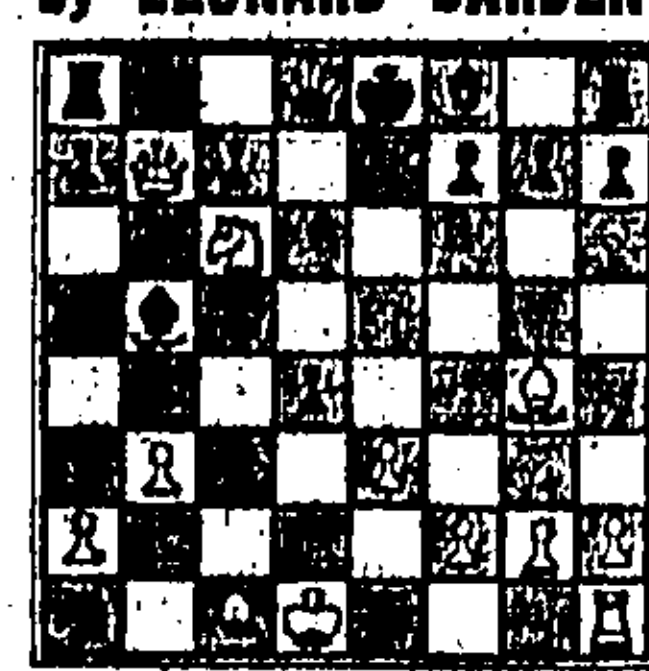

Starters, weights and riders for tomorrow's Happy Valley race meeting are given below. This list is based on the official list issued by the Hongkong Jockey Club. As an additional guide to form, the placings of the ponies in their last three starts will be found on the left hand side of their names.

The names of ponies are all listed according to the positions drawn. The first named pony has drawn the No. 1 position, the second named the No. 2 and so on.

2.00 pm Race 1. ROBINSON HANDICAP (1st Section), 6 Furlongs, Class 2, Novices.	114 Grand Moment (A. S. Wong) 140 lbs.
120 Beautiful Phoenix (Sofronoff) 137 lbs.	140 Permanent View (Lumi) 140 lbs.
120 Mascot (Leckoff) 153 lbs.	4.30 pm Race 4. BOWEN PLATE, 6 Furlongs, Class A.
120 Cheshington (Neel) 147 lbs.	20 Buxey (Tokmokoff) 140 lbs.
120 Ever Yours (Lumi) 152 lbs.	200 Apex (A. S. Wong) 140 lbs.
120 Good Condition (Ng) 147 lbs.	010 Arrowhead (Neel) 147 lbs.
120 Mayfair (A. S. Wong) 141 lbs.	42 Star Kingdom (S. H. Wong) 140 lbs.
120 Polaris (Ng) 134 lbs.	11 Misaus J. (Belov) 147 lbs.
120 Norse Girl (Belov) 152 lbs.	01 Bon Voyage (Metrevell) 147 lbs.
120 Temujin (Sofronoff) 140 lbs.	14 Pixie (S. H. Wong) 147 lbs.
2.30 pm Race 2. GRANVILLE PLATE, 1 Mile, Class C.	5.00 pm Race 7. STUBBS HANDICAP, 1 1/2 Miles, Class 1.
120 Altruism (Tokmokoff) 147 lbs.	210 Carola (A. S. Wong) 140 lbs.
120 Teo (Sofronoff) 147 lbs.	000 Resurrection (Sofronoff) 143 lbs.
120 Game Pie (S. H. Wong) 147 lbs.	000 Shillelagh (Metrevell) 144 lbs.
120 Honey (Lee) 147 lbs.	000 Goddess of Victory (Leckoff) 140 lbs.
120 Fluker (S. H. Wong) 147 lbs.	002 Nabusa (Sofronoff) 140 lbs.
120 All Depends (Sofronoff) 147 lbs.	5.30 pm Race 8. ROBINSON HANDICAP, 6 Furlongs, Class 2.
120 Mont Blanc (A. S. Wong) 147 lbs.	300 Flying Phoenix (Ng) 150 lbs.
120 Green Light (Belov) 147 lbs.	023 Bowsprit (A. S. Wong) 144 lbs.
120 Overture (S. H. Wong) 147 lbs.	000 Magic Feet (Sofronoff) 137 lbs.
120 Broadway (Pereboff) 147 lbs.	040 Hammer Mill (Tokmokoff) 142 lbs.
120 Winning Ticket (Belov) 147 lbs.	000 Hadda Hu (Metrevell) 145 lbs.
120 Justin (Rodney) 147 lbs.	020 Miss Otis (Ng) 140 lbs.
120 Charcoal Boy (Lumi) 147 lbs.	030 Gigi (Rodney) 145 lbs.
120 Spring Tide (S. H. Wong) 147 lbs.	233 Beautiful Flower (Leckoff) 150 lbs.
120 Paddle Wheel (Pereboff) 147 lbs.	6.00 pm Race 9. HENNESSY HANDICAP, 2nd Section, 1 Mile, Class 2.
120 Flecha (Rodney) 147 lbs.	100 Centra Forward (Neel) 138 lbs.
3.00 pm Race 3. CONDUIT PLATE, 6 Furlongs, Class B.	213 Trooper (Rodney) 150 lbs.
120 Stroms (Tokmokoff) 142 lbs.	000 Sincerely Yours (Neel) 130 lbs.
120 Good Win (Chey) 142 lbs.	212 Aerobol (Chung) 145 lbs.
120 Lucky Seven (Sofronoff) 142 lbs.	442 Good Fun (Leckoff) 147 lbs.
120 Linda (Ng) 150 lbs.	000 Edinburg (Metrevell) 139 lbs.
120 Hance (S. H. Wong) 142 lbs.	221 Wellington (Rodney) 140 lbs.
120 Miss Allison (Belov) 147 lbs.	243 Maytime (A. S. Wong) 142 lbs.
120 Captain Kid (Ng) 147 lbs.	010 Hard Hidden (Tokmokoff) 134 lbs.
120 Tigress (Ng) 147 lbs.	000 Salome (Sofronoff) 138 lbs.
120 Sing Chi (Pereboff) 147 lbs.	000 Norse Prince (Sofronoff) 130 lbs.
120 Trigo (Tokmokoff) 142 lbs.	000 No Surprise (Lee) 138 lbs.
3.30 pm Race 4. CONDUIT PLATE, 2nd Section, 6 Furlongs, Class 2.
120 Perfectation (Pereboff) 150 lbs.
120 East Coast (Neel) 147 lbs.
120 Camellia (Ng) 147 lbs.
120 Happy Number (S. H. Wong) 147 lbs.
120 Golden Rule (Ng) 150 lbs.
120 Benefaction (Metrevell) 147 lbs.
120 Linfield (Tokmokoff) 143 lbs.
120 Archie (Chey) 142 lbs.
120 Perri (Sofronoff) 150 lbs.
4.00 pm Race 5. HENNESSY HANDICAP, 1st Section, 1 Mile, Class 2.
120 Shiras (Tokmokoff) 143 lbs.
120 Nectar (Rodney) 134 lbs.
120 Lynner (Belov) 140 lbs.
120 Vanity Fair (Lee) 154 lbs.
120 Sinclair (Metrevell) 153 lbs.
120 Chiu Tze Loong (Chiang) 144 lbs.

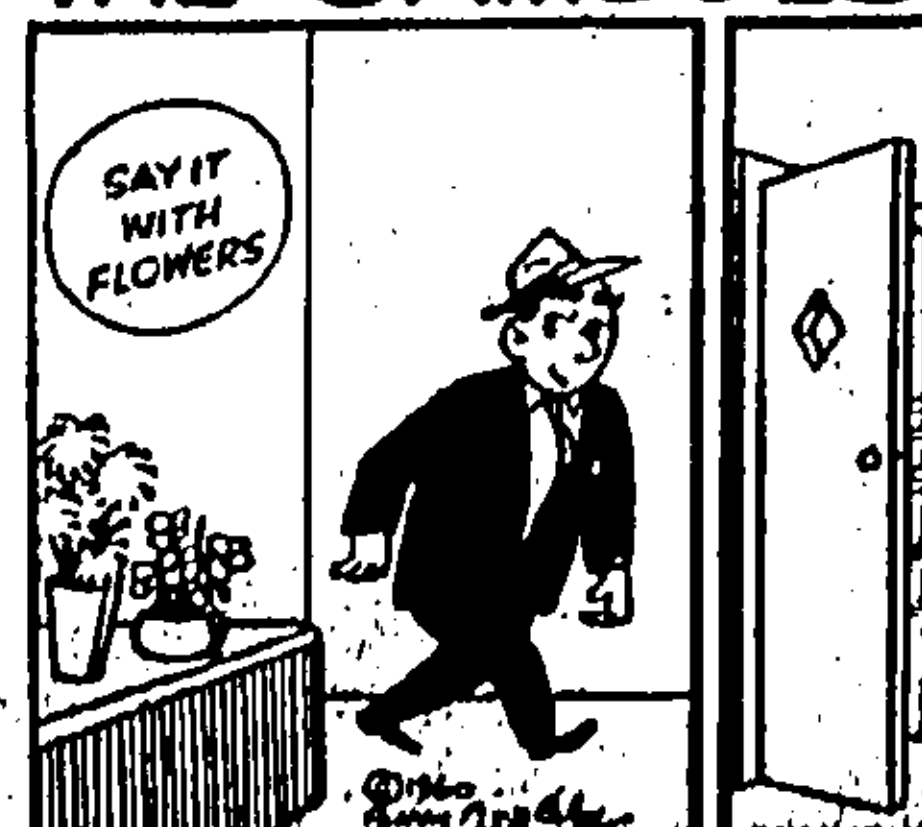

CHESS

by LEONARD BARDEN

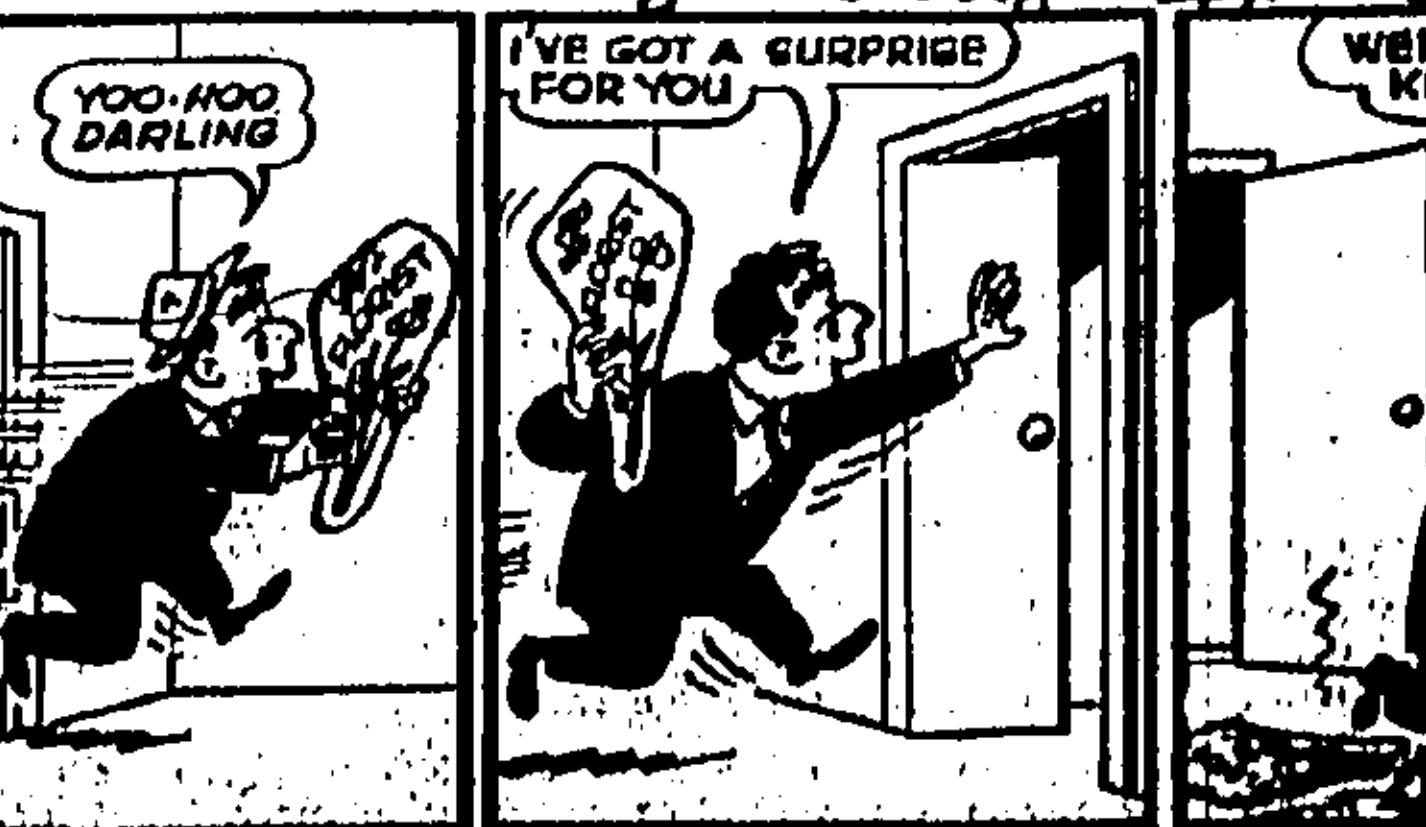

Here is a position from actual play: Black to move and win. London Express Service.

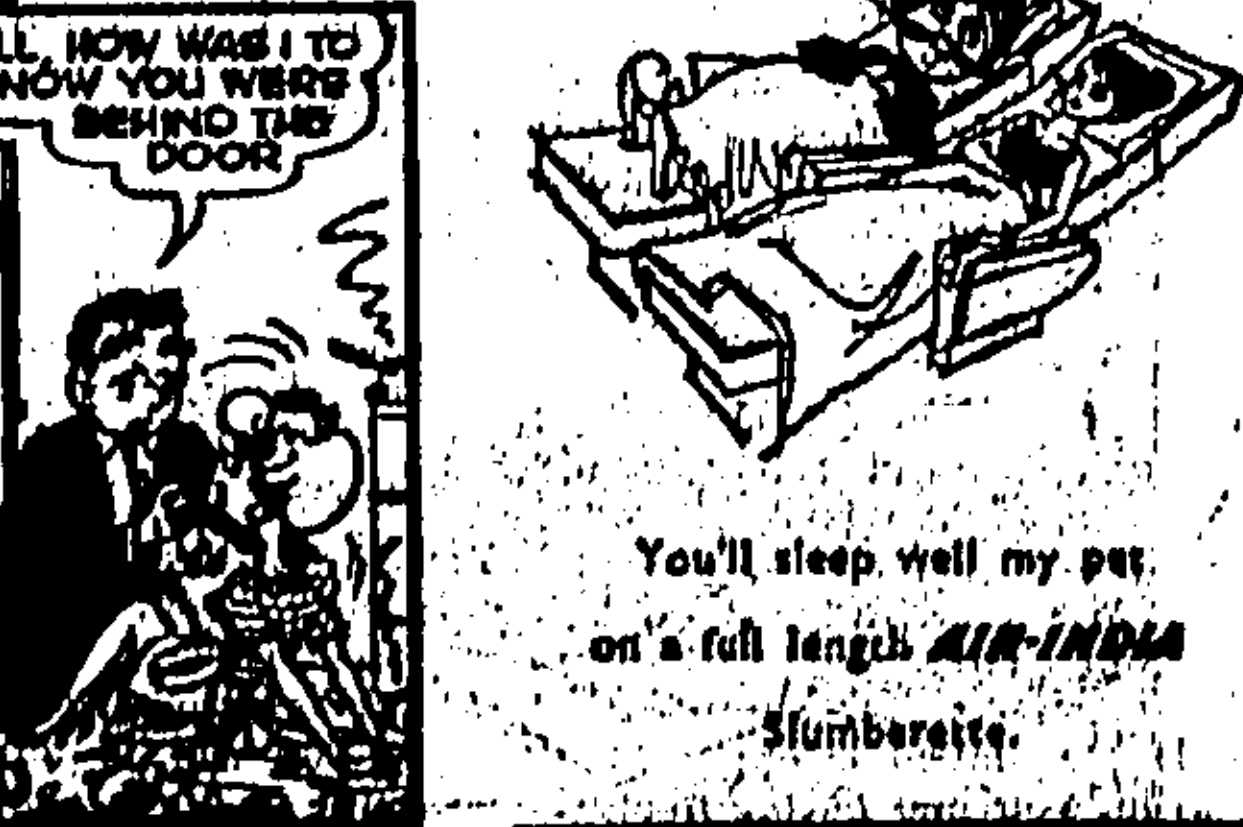

THE GAMBOLS

By Barry Appleby

WELL, NOW WAS I TO KNOW YOU WERE BEHIND THE DOOR

You'll sleep well my pet, on a full length ALI-INDIA Slumberette.

GEORGE KENT & CO., LTD.

WATER METERS, STEAM METERS,
OIL METERS, GAS METERS,
CONTROLLERS & RECORDERS.

ENGINEERING EQUIPMENT CO. LTD.
208 Chartered Bank Building. Tel. 27789

More local news on P. 5

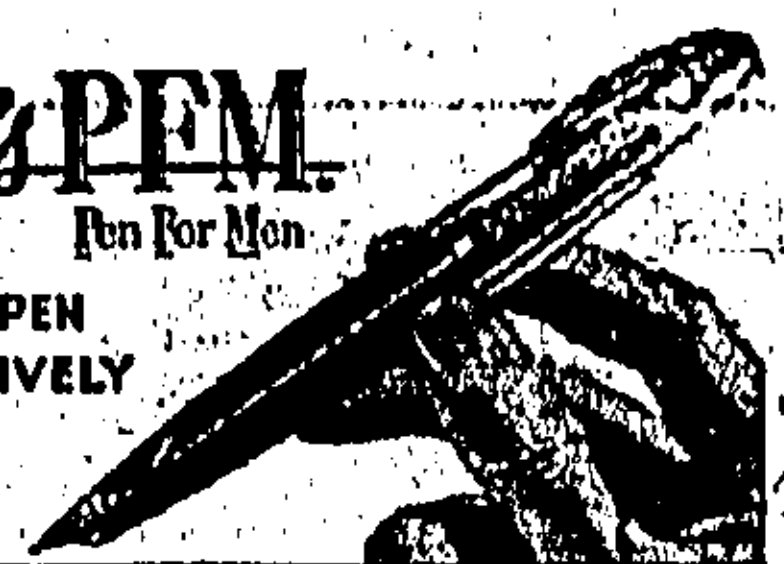

CHINA MAIL

Established 1849

Page 10

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1960.

Sheaffer's PFM
THE BOLD NEW PEN
DESIGNED EXCLUSIVELY
FOR MEN

Convicted man asked for life sentence

A man with 26 previous convictions in an appeal before Mr Justice R. H. Mills-Owens in the Supreme Court this morning asked for a life sentence when his appeal was dismissed.

The man, Choi Ho-ping, appealed against conviction and a sentence of eight months for criminal intimidation. He said he pleaded guilty to the charge because he was told to do so by a police detective.

Mr Justice Mills-Owens observed that the magistrate in sentencing Choi had recommended that Choi receive psychiatric treatment in prison.

Choi, who claimed to be mentally sick at times, admitted he had been receiving treatment in jail.

Mr Justice Mills-Owens rejected Choi's appeal, and before Choi was led away, advised him to try to benefit by the treatment in prison.

HK CANNING FIRM UNLIKELY TO OPERATE IN OKINAWA

Naha, Oct. 28. The application of a Hongkong canning corporation to establish a canning plant here is likely to be turned down, it was reported today.

The Amoy Canning Corporation, one of the biggest canning companies in the Colony, has filed an application with the Okinawa Foreign Investment Board to build a plant here.

The plant would can meat, vegetables, fish and other marine products, dried bananas and pineapples.

The Foreign Investment Board has conferred with the Okinawa Economics Department fishery section with regard to the packing of fish and other marine products.

The fishery section said it recognized the necessity of a processing plant, but was critical of foreign investment in the canning industry because of the shortage of fish.

As for pineapple processing, there are so many pineapple processing plants in Okinawa, it was reported.

Under the circumstances, the department will recommend disapproval of the application filed by the Hongkong corporation, the report said.—UPI.

To attend Toyko conference

Macao, Oct. 28. Dr. Bento C. M. Rodrigues, chief of the Macao meteorological service left today for Tokyo to attend the International Symposium on numerical weather prediction scheduled to take place from Nov. 3.—AFP.

THE KNIGHT SHIRT.....

Story book costumes to sleep in, to lounge in, to dream in. Inspired by the days when knighthood was in flower, they conjure up the most romantic reveries.

- ★ CRUSADER
- ★ LUTE PLAYER
- ★ PAGE GIRL
- ★ HERALD
- ★ PENNANT WEARER
- ★ CHAIN MAIL and
- ★ FAIR DAMSEL

— soft and cuddly to the touch
— warm and cosy to wear
— and so fatally feminine to the eye!!!

exclusively at

Paquerette's

— NEW QUILTED BRUNCHCOATS — just arrived!

16A Des Voeux Road, C. Tel: 21-157

Printed and published by TERENCE GORDON NEWLANDS FRANCE for and on behalf of South China Morning Post Limited at 1-3 Wyndham Street, City of Victoria in the Colony of Hongkong.

New post for I.D. Bruce

The appointment of Mr I. D. Bruce as Director of Manpower and Commissioner, Essential Services Corps is announced in today's Government Gazette.

The appointment of Mr Bruce, who is a local businessman, as Director of Manpower, a Government spokesman explained, represents a return to the previous practice, instituted when the Compulsory Service Ordinance was enacted, of appointing a prominent member of the community from outside the Government service to this post.

The appointments are on a part-time basis and Mr Bruce will be assisted in both by other staff, including an Assistant Director of Manpower. Mr Bruce assumes these appointments as from today.

Mr Bruce is a director of Jardine Matheson & Co Ltd, Jardine Dyeing and Finishing Co Ltd, Harry Wicking and Co Ltd and is also a member of the Board of Governors of Matilda Hospital.

The post was previously held by a Government official, Mr J. F. Coyne.

Mr Coyne has left Government service on expiry of his contract.

Man charged with city murder

A 47-year-old carpenter, Cheng Oi, of 35 D'Aguilar-street, ground floor, appeared before Mr E. Corbally at Central Court this morning on a charge of murder.

Cheng was remanded for four days for further inquiries. He is alleged to have murdered a woman, Chan Mei-ling, in the cockpit of his home yesterday.

No plea was taken. Divisional Detective Inspector A. J. Lyster is in charge of the case.

Had opium smoking apparatus

A 60-year-old woman who had a complete opium smoking apparatus and was in possession of 1lb 10oz of barbitone in a concealed compartment above a window in her house, was sentenced to six months' jail by Mr D. Cons at Central Court this morning.

She was Chan Ying, of 9 New Market-street, first floor. She pleaded guilty.

Currency in circulation

Currency in circulation in September amounted to $903,005,605.30, made up as follows: Banknotes: Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, $827,800,000; Chartered Bank, $70,345,730; Mercantile Bank Ltd, $3,903,150; and Government, $1 notes, $34,801,467. Subsidiary notes and coins: $25,075,538.30.

The Hongkong Clearing House figure for September is $1,934,050,734.99.

Feast of Christ the King

About 40,000 Catholics will mark the Feast of Christ the King at the Sookungoo Government Stadium on Sunday from 4.30 pm to 6.30 pm. Bishop Lawrence Blanchi will officiate at a Pontifical Mass, to be followed by a colourful procession of 300 altar servers, 300 priests and acolytes, 400 nuns and lay representatives and a 700-voiced diocesan choir.

Thousands visit cemeteries and climb hills

Thousands of Chinese climbed hills in the Colony and visited cemeteries today in celebration on the Chung Young Festival.

They climb the heights to avoid evil spirits and sweep the tombs of relatives and friends and take token gifts of food to pacify the dead.

About 3,000 people went up the Peak by the Peak tram this morning.

Earlier, crowds, six deep, queued up in the car park at the lower Peak tram terminus waiting to board the tram.

Flowers, joss sticks

There have also been big crowds at the Tinshatui Railway Station since early this morning.

Carrying flowers, joss sticks and food, people boarded trains to visit the Wo Hop Shek and Sandy Ridge cemeteries in the New Territories.

Chinese cemeteries all over the Colony have reported large numbers of visitors.

This photograph was taken this morning on the Peak. —China Mail photo.

FINE CHAMBER CONCERT BY PHILHARMONIC

By D. E. GRAY

THE Hongkong Philharmonic Society's Chamber Music Concert last evening at Grantham Training College was, I think, the best concert of its kind that I have heard in Hongkong. The standard of performance was very high indeed.

It was an all-Schubert programme, and of the two works performed there is no doubt that the balance between piano and strings was far better in the "Trout" Quintet (piano, violin, viola, cello and bass) than in the Trio Op. 100 (piano, violin, cello).

In the Trio the piano was a little heavy, especially in the first movement. But at no time did I find the music unpleasant.

Annarosa Tadei is undoubtedly a first-class musician and every note means something to her. But brilliant musician that she is, it will take a little time to develop that intimate give and take, that intertwining and blending of sound which, for lack of a better name, we call balance, and which is the hall-mark of the finest chamber music.

I do hope this trio (Annarosa, Arrigo Foa and D.C. Honrado) will continue to practice together and to play. In these three fine musicians we have the best that Hongkong can offer—ample material for welding together into a first-class professional Trio. And let me compliment D. C. Honrado for his beautiful tone in the opening melody of the Andante Con Moto.

The balance in the "Trout" Quintet was perfect throughout. Ely Alves (violin) was reliable, as always, and A. Manheim, (bass) is a tower of strength in any combination — the pity is that composers did not write more music for this instrument.

It was sheer joy to listen to this music from beginning to end, and all I can say to the Hongkong Philharmonic Society is: Let us have another of this type of concert very soon, for with this performance Chamber Music by local musicians has taken an enormous forward stride.

SSAFA centre Kowloon visit

Lady Hull, Lady Howe, Lady Templer and Lady McLeod inspected the Welfare Centre at Whitfield Barracks this morning.

They were shown around the centre by Mrs W. P. L. Lawson, wife of the Garrison commander, Mrs T. G. Barker, Chairman of the Centre, Mrs G. Steward, SSAFA representative in Hongkong and Mrs C. D. H. Wilson, Kowloon SSAFA representative.

The visitors also inspected the clinic where they met Sisters E. Jeffery and A. Sykes.

Siamese stayed 17 months too long

A Siamese man Peng Wong Saephing, 24, was fined $500 by Mr E. S. Haydon at Kowloon Court this morning for overstaying without permission.

Sub-inspector G. M. Byrne said defendant arrived on January 31, 1959 and was allowed to stay three months.

On further application his stay was extended by one month.

At Kaitak yesterday he was about to leave for Bangkok when his passport was checked.

It was revealed he had been in Hongkong for the last 17 months without permission.

Defendant was on $2,000 bail. Arrangements are being made for his departure this evening.

29 killed

Sixteen persons were killed and 601 injured in a total of 876 industrial and occupational accidents in September.

Thirteen persons were killed, 644 injured, 188 seriously, in 687 traffic accidents in September. There were 208 accidents in Hongkong, 303 in Kowloon and 85 in the New Territories.

POP... by GOC

OBVIOUSLY—YOU STILL INTOXICATE
ME!

WHATEVER
THE SITUATION...

Carlsberg

KEEPS YOU SMILING

Beat up woman: U.S. sailor jailed

A 22-year-old American sailor who assaulted a screaming prostitute was sent to jail for three months by Central Magistrate Mr E. Corbally this morning.

The sailor was Eric Allen Dreyer, a fireman aboard the USS Jason.

Dreyer pleaded guilty to the assault which occurred when the woman demanded more money from him after agreeing to a fee of $10. Dreyer gave her two blows on the face and then ran away.

Tam was sent to hospital and a medical examination showed she had been throttled. Dreyer was later arrested by Police.

HIS FEAR

Mr G. S. Stevenson of Stewart and Co said Dreyer hit the woman only to stop her screaming, not to harm her. He thought her screams might attract someone who would beat him up.

Mr Stevenson asked Mr Corbally to take into consideration that Dreyer had had a few drinks and that Tam had demanded more money than she had originally agreed to accept.

Mr Stevenson said he understood Dreyer would be charged by the US Naval authorities and that if he were sentenced to 90 days or more in the Hongkong courts he would be automatically discharged from the US Navy.

Charged with bid to defraud

A man pretended he was collecting money on behalf of personnel of the Police Anti-corruption branch, Police alleged in court today.

Charged with intent to defraud another man of $55 was Chin Wai, 40, insurance broker of 71F Tai Hang Tung Re-settlement Estate, first floor.

He appeared before Central Magistrate Mr E. Corbally today.

He was remanded until Tuesday when he pleaded not guilty. Det. Sub-Insps Chan Siu-shun prosecuted.

SUPER PUMPS for the BUSY BEES

So flexible! It folds!
the pump with unbreakable heel

by Foot Flairs

you can curl your toes or bend your foot... this shoe goes right along with you!
you can walk miles with smiles because the permanent lift won't wear out!
and yet you only pay the price of domestic made shoes

Colours:
black, brown, navy, calf
also in black suede
sizes: 4B—8 1/2B

New Nylon stockings by Munsingwear
STAY-THERE BRAS and GIRDLES by Hollywood-Vassarette
NEW BLOOMERETTES
(ideal for wear with sports clothes)
in black, beige, red nylon.

See them at Mode Elite, Ltd.
Kowloon Bldg., 22 Queen's Road, C. HONG KONG.
Ocean View Court, 27 Chatham Road, KOWLOON.